California State University
Dominguez Hills

Academic Affairs Manual

Curriculum on Department Websites

Once a new program or major has been approved by the Chancellor's Office, the required curriculum may be listed on the department or program website only until the material is published in the print or online catalog or the addendum to the online catalog. At that time, the department or program must delete the required curriculum from its website and provide a link to the description in the online catalog and the website for the roadmaps.

Approved: _Allen A. Mori_____ Date:__3-19-07_____