World-Famous Aviators Begin Aerial Contest Today

Curtiss to Surely Fly, He Asserts

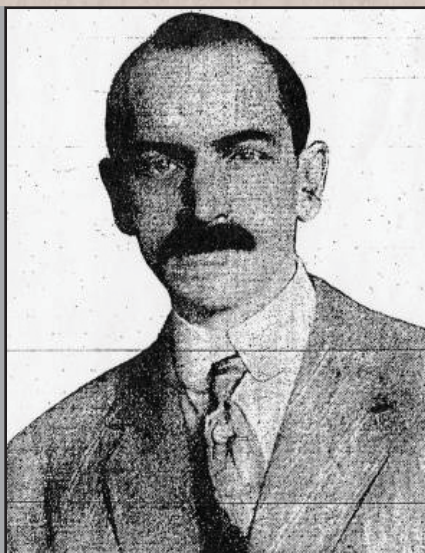

Noted Aviator Declares No Injunction Has Been Issued Against Him in East, Nor Will any be Issued, He Thinks

Ready to Experiment with Local Atmosphere

Visits Field at Dominguez, With His Manager, and Expresses Himself Satisfied With Outlook for the Meet.

Declaring he knows nothing of an injunction issued against him at the instigation of the Wright Brothers, further than what he will enter as many of the events as possible at the Los Angeles aviation meet. Glenn H Curtiss, Master Aviator, now in Los Angeles is prepared to establish new world records in air navigation.

"There has been no injunction granted" declared the aviator this morning. "There is no reason for an injunction" no infringement upon the Wright Patents and I cannot see why there should be any.
