Adding a Class: You can add classes using MyCSUDH. Note: if adding a class involves waiving a co-requisite, you will need to submit the Change of Program form with your Instructor’s signature. If you are adding classes with time conflict, you will need to submit the Approval for Time Conflict form with both Instructors' signatures.

Dropping a Class: You can drop classes using MyCSUDH unless you’re enrolled in a co-requisite class, in which case the Change of Program form with your Instructor’s signature is needed.

Grading Option (CR/NC) / Audit: You should use the Grading Option Form or an Approval for Audit form, which require the Instructor’s signature. Note: you must already be enrolled in the class before submitting this request.

Please Note: Waitlists will be purged on 08/23/2020.

Adding a Class: You can add classes using MyCSUDH. A Late Registration Permission Number from the Instructor/department is needed for each class. Since these permission numbers are time sensitive, you are encouraged to add each class immediately after obtaining the permission number. Note: if adding the class involves an exception, you will need to submit the appropriate form as noted in the section above.
