

International Student Services
Government Sponsored Students
Consent to Release Academic Information

You will submit this form to ISS during the International Student Orientation. Please do not submit this form to the Admissions Office.

This form is completed by current international students who are financially sponsored by the government of their home country. Completion of this form authorizes the International Student Services (ISS) office to release students' academic and/or immigration information to representatives from the government entity charged with the administration of financial sponsorships.
