

2020-2021 College of Education Scholarships

Applications Due: February 18, 2020

The COE Scholarship Application for 2020-2021 is now available and is completed online through your CSUDH portal.

Directions:

Before you begin:

- Review the Scholarship Chart (on the COE website) to ensure that there is at least one scholarship for which you are eligible.
- You will be asked for several things as you complete the application. You may save and continue but make sure that you give yourself time to complete the application before the deadline.
 - Personal Statement (600-1200 words): You may want to complete in MS Word or another word processing program to write and edit. Then you may cut and paste into the application. Specific details are provided in the application.
 - Recommendations: You will be asked to upload two signed letters of recommendations: it is advised that at least one recommender is a professor. Let your recommenders know that the letters must be received by the deadline. Give them at least 2-3 weeks to complete the recommendation.
 - Resume: You will be asked to provide a resume with your application.

Completing the Application

- Log onto your CSUDH Student Center and choose the scholarship button.
- Choose the apply to CSUDH Scholarships and log in using your regular log on information.
- Choose the 2020-2021 College of Education Scholarships
- Start Application. You will be asked a series of questions which allows the scholarship committee to determine the scholarships for which you are eligible. Continue to complete using the next button. Once the application is completed with all of the items mentioned above, you will be asked to submit.

Note: You must be enrolled full-time during the 2020-2021 school year in a COE Program (Fall 2020 or Spring 2021). If you are selected for one of the scholarships, the money is deposited into your student account.
