

2023-2024 College of Education Scholarships

Applications Due: Friday, February 10, 2023

The COE Scholarship Application for 2023-2034 scholarships is now available and is completed online through your CSUDH portal.

Directions:

Before you begin:

- Review the Scholarship Chart to ensure that there is at least one scholarship for which you are eligible.
- You will be asked for several things as you complete the application. You may save and continue but make sure that you give yourself time to complete the application before the deadline.
 - Personal Statement: This will be a series of four questions with two additional questions for MA students who wish to be considered for two of the MA scholarships. You may want to complete in MS Word or another word processing program to write and edit. Then you may cut and paste into the application. Specific details are provided in the application.
 - Recommendations: You will be asked to upload one signed letters of recommendations: it is advised that the recommender is a professor. Let your recommender know that the letters must be received by the deadline. Give them at least 2 weeks to complete the recommendation.
 - Resume: You will be asked to provide a resume with your application.

Completing the Application

- Log onto your CSUDH Student Center and choose the scholarship button.
- Choose the apply to CSUDH Scholarships and log in using your regular log on information.
- Choose the 2023-2024 College of Education Scholarships
- Start Application. You will be asked a series of questions which allows the scholarship committee to determine the scholarships for which you are eligible. Continue to complete using the next button. Once the application is completed with all of the items mentioned above, you will be asked to submit.

Note: You must be enrolled during the 2023-2024 school year in a COE Program (Fall 2023 or Spring 2024). If you are selected for one of the scholarships, the money is deposited into your student financial account.