

Become a Moderate/Severe Special Education Teacher!

Project UPLIFT prepares paraprofessionals, under-prepared teachers, and others to teach children with moderate/severe disabilities.

In four semesters you can earn your preliminary teaching credential and be on your way to an M.A. in Special Education.

PROJECT UPLIFT

Uniting to Prepare Low Incidence Teachers

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
DOMINGUEZ HILLS

UPLIFT will begin spring 2014.

Please email Dr. Beard if you are interested and/or have any questions

E-mail: kbeard@csudh.edu

Program Features (upon acceptance into CSUDH and the Moderate/Severe credential program)

- Tuition and textbook stipend for four terms
- Small living stipend
- Accelerated four term program
- Mentoring by experienced teachers
- Earn units toward a graduate degree

Program will begin spring 2014