Upon completing the Cal Apply and Teacher Education Advanced Degree applications, allow 4 - 6 weeks for your application to be processed. For questions/status regarding your program application contact the COE Admission Unit at (310) 243-3530. You will receive an email of your conditional admission into the Teacher Education Division.

The MA in Education: Dual Language Learning Option will require completion of 31 units with a minimum 2.75 grade point average. The Graduate Record Examination (GRE) is not required for applicants. A minimum of 21 semester units must be completed in residence. A maximum of nine (9) units of coursework taken previously may be used to meet the course content requirements of a graduate program if they have been completed within the seven years immediately preceding the completion of the requirements for the degree.

No courses may apply toward the required number of units of approved graduate work that have been used to meet the requirements of another degree.

NOTE: You must successful complete the Graduate Writing Assessment Requirement (GWAR or equivalent) prior to completion of 9 units.

Teacher Education Appeal/Exceptions Policy

Students may file a petition for exception to some TED requirements or regulations (including requirements for initial COE program admission, admission to phases, and out-of- date coursework) by filing a "TED Petition for Exception." Petitions are reviewed by the TED Chair, with faculty consultation. Petitions are available in the department office.

Note: For some requirements such as basic skills, certificate of clearance, and intern eligibility, there are no exceptions per CTC regulations and CSU EO 1077.
