PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

MAY 2015

Dear Graduates,

Commencement is a special moment for our entire university community. Today, we acknowledge and pay tribute to each of you and your academic accomplishments. I encourage you to celebrate and take pride in your unique journey and academic achievement, and recognize and appreciate those who made this special moment possible.

The first CSU Dominguez Hills commencement ceremony in 1967 honored four graduates. This year, more than 4,000 graduates from six different colleges join almost 90,000 alumni who are transforming the economic, educational, cultural, and political aspects of our region and beyond. I am confident each of you will make your own mark, forging new and exciting paths filled with the promises and possibilities a CSU Dominguez Hills education and degree provides.

In whatever path you take, whether advancing career aspirations or pursuing new academic goals, I wish each of you continued happiness and success and hope you reflect warmly on your time at CSU Dominguez Hills. I also encourage you to maintain an active connection with your alma mater and reap the benefits of continued engagement with the university while serving as mentors and advocates for new students.

Finally, know that wherever life takes you, you will never be without CSU Dominguez Hills. You forever have our support, you forever have our respect, and you forever are a Toro.

Make us proud.

Dr. Willie J. Hagan, President
California State University, Dominguez Hills

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, DOMINGUEZ HILLS OVERVIEW

California State University, Dominguez Hills is located on a portion of the historic Rancho San Pedro, the oldest Spanish land grant in the Los Angeles area. Its 346-acre campus was in the continuous possession of the Dominguez family through seven generations, from its concession to Juan José Dominguez in 1784 to its acquisition by the people of the state of California for the home of the university.

The California State Legislature authorized the establishment of the university in 1960 and the bill became law when Governor Edmund G. (Pat) Brown signed it on April 29, 1960. At that time, the college was to be known as South Bay State College. On January 19, 1962, its first president, Dr. Leo F. Cain, was appointed and the Trustees renamed South Bay State as California State College at Palos Verdes. He proceeded to assemble a planning staff whose priority was the selection of a site for the college from a choice of four proposed sites: Friendship Park, Fort MacArthur, Torrance and Dominguez Hills.

Temporarily located in a California Federal Savings Bank in Rolling Hills Estates in 1965, the university held its first classes that same fall. The 1965-1966 schedule of classes consisted of one page offering about ten classes per semester. Between 40 and 50 students were taught by 11 faculty members, although each administrator also taught classes.

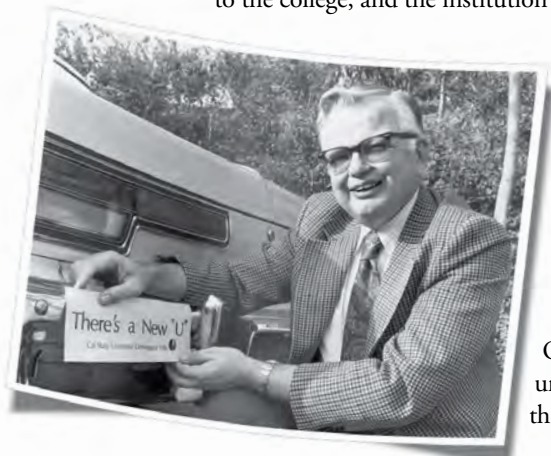

In the wake of the 1965 Watts Riots, it was determined that the Dominguez Hills site would be most accessible to minority students in nearby neighborhoods who wanted a higher education. The Trustees approved purchase of the site in October 1965 and changed the name to California State College, Dominguez Hills on March 3, 1966.

In September 1966, CSC Dominguez Hills opened its doors at another temporary location, what was called the Watt campus in honor of Ray A. Watt, president of the Stevenson Village Company, which owned the land and agreed to construct a building for the university's use. The Watt campus was on Victoria Street across the street from the current site of the university.

On June 10, 1967, the college held its first commencement on the Watt campus with four graduates who had begun taking classes at the bank location as juniors.

After acquiring title to the Rancho land, the college held its official groundbreaking on December 5, 1967. The opening of the permanent campus occurred on October 14, 1968, in a complex still referred to today as the Small College Complex. The remainder of the initial buildings opened on January 2, 1969, followed by the Social and Behavioral Sciences building in fall 1971, and the Educational Resources Center on January 15, 1972. Slightly more than a year later, on April 29, 1973, the college dedicated its new Natural Sciences and Mathematics building. Between 1974 and 1975, the Humanities and Fine Arts building, a Student Health Center, and a Theatre Arts Center opened.

In 1976, upon the announcement of President Cain's retirement, a search for a new president culminated in the appointment of Dr. Donald R. Gerth, who addressed the faculty for the first time on September 26 of that same year. On September 12, 1977, the California State University Board of Trustees voted to approve university status to the college, and the institution was renamed "California State University, Dominguez Hills."

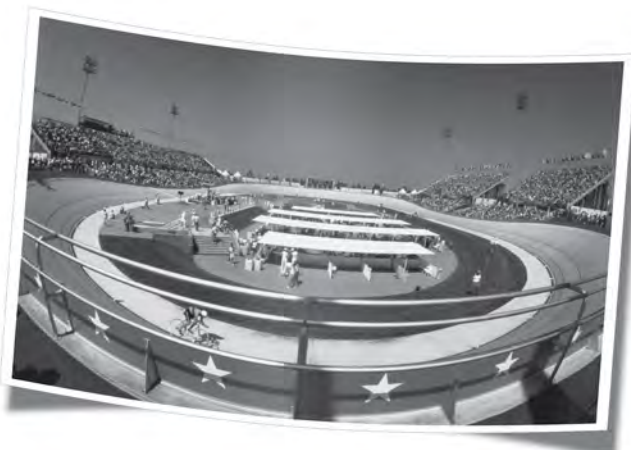

In 1984, the university hosted the cycling portion of the Los Angeles Olympics. A large outdoor velodrome was constructed with the help of the Southland Corporation. In 2003, the campus became home to the Home Depot Center (now StubHub Center), an athletics and entertainment destination for those interested in soccer, tennis, track and field and cycle racing. The StubHub Center is home to major league soccer team, the LA Galaxy.

On April 29, 2010, the 50th anniversary of the founding of the university, the campus celebrated with a ribbon cutting to open the south wing addition of the Leo F. Cain University Library.

CSU Dominguez Hills has benefited greatly from the service of the presidents and interim presidents who followed Presidents Cain and Gerth: Dr. Richard Butwell (1984-86); Dr. John Brownell (1986-89), acting; Dr. Robert C. Detweiler (1989-98); Dr. Herbert L. Carter (1998-99), interim; Dr. James E. Lyons, Sr. (1999-2007); Dr. Boice Bowman (2007), acting; Dr. Mildred García (2007-2012), and Dr. Willie J. Hagan (2012-present).

CSU Dominguez Hills has continued to broaden its ethnic and geographic base. It has become, as U.S. News & World Report has noted for several years, "one of the most diverse campuses in the West." The university provides a wide range of outstanding academic programs and opportunities to approximately 15,000 students annually, ensuring an exceptional and well-rounded educational experience. Our graduates leave with the skills that enable them to become leaders and productive citizens of a diverse and global society.

MARIA CONTRERAS-SWEET

ADMINISTRATOR, U.S. SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Maria Contreras-Sweet became the 24th Administrator of the U.S. Small Business Administration and a member of President Obama's Cabinet on April 7, 2014.

Contreras-Sweet is a successful entrepreneur, business executive, and state cabinet official. Throughout her career in the public and private sector, she has been a champion of diversity, access to capital and equal opportunity for all Americans.

Prior to her arrival in Washington, Contreras-Sweet founded the first Latino-formed commercial bank in California in more than 35 years. As the bank's executive chairwoman, she focused on providing access to capital and counseling to small- and mid-size businesses in Los Angeles. She previously started a venture capital firm that invested in small businesses.

Contreras-Sweet was the first Latina to hold a state cabinet post in California. As Secretary of Business, Transportation and Housing, she managed 13 departments, including Caltrans, the California Highway Patrol, the Department of Motor Vehicles and the Department of Financial Institutions. She managed a $14 billion budget and a workforce of more than 42,000 employees during her five-year tenure. She led in the creation of the state's Department of Managed Health Care and its Office of Patient Advocate and in the implementation of a $2.1 billion housing bond that stimulated the state's economy. During California's energy crisis, she chaired the finance committee of the state's electrical power grid, CA-ISO, helping to stabilize the state's volatile energy market.

Contreras-Sweet entered the private sector as the director of public affairs for Westinghouse's 7-Up / RC Bottling Company. She rose to vice president and later became an equity partner in the company.

Contreras-Sweet was a founding director of The California Endowment, a multi-billion dollar philanthropic health foundation. She was appointed by the United States Senate to serve on the Federal Glass Ceiling Commission, created to help break down barriers between women and the executive suite. In 1989, Contreras-Sweet founded Hispanas Organized for Political Equality, a nonprofit, nonpartisan advocacy organization dedicated to encouraging Latinas to engage more fully in the democratic process.

Born in Guadalajara, Mexico, Contreras-Sweet is a first-generation immigrant who came to the United States at age 5 with her mother and five siblings. Contreras-Sweet attended Mt. San Antonio Junior College and later California State University, Los Angeles, where she earned a B.S. in political science.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

GENE SEROKA

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, PORT OF LOS ANGELES

Gene Seroka is the executive director of the Port of Los Angeles. His nomination from L.A. Mayor Eric Garcetti was confirmed by the City Council on June 11, 2014.

As executive director for the Port, Seroka is responsible for managing a $939 million budget, advancing major capital projects, growing trade volumes and promoting innovative, sustainable practices that strengthen Southern California's economy. In this role, he interacts with a wide range of stakeholders, including Port customers around the globe, industry partners, elected and appointed officials at all levels, harbor area residents and business leaders.

Seroka brought more than 26 years of experience in shipping, global logistics and executive management to the Port. He began his career in the maritime industry as a sales support representative and over the course of two decades advanced to several executive-level positions. Most recently, he was head of commercial in the Americas region for American President Lines Limited. APL is a wholly owned subsidiary of Neptune Orient

Lines and the world's seventh largest ocean carrier.

Seroka first joined APL in 1988 at the organization's Cincinnati office. Over the years, he held various positions in sales and management, with increasing responsibility and high-level assignments all over the world. Throughout his career, he played a key role in global marketing and corporate strategies for APL.

Seroka's first overseas posting was in Shanghai, where he served as director of sales and marketing for North and Central China from 1999 to 2003. After that, he moved to Jakarta, where he was president director of PT APL and APL Logistics in Indonesia before relocating to Singapore in 2005 to become vice president of APL Logistics' business units in 26 countries, in the company's Asia/Middle East and South Asia regions. From 2008 to 2010, he served as vice president for APL and APL Logistics Emirates LLC in Dubai, where he managed APL's business in the Middle East and East Africa Region.

He returned to the U.S. in 2010 to become president of Americas for APL Limited in Phoenix, where he managed APL's Liner Shipping business. There he had oversight of 1,000 employees and was responsible for all commercial, port terminal, intermodal, land transportation and labor activities throughout the region.

Seroka earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and an MBA from the University of New Orleans.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

BILL SHUMARD

PRESIDENT AND CEO, SPECIAL OLYMPICS SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Bill Shumard has served as president and CEO of Special Olympics Southern California (SOSC) since June 2005. Under his leadership, SOSC is now recognized as one of the premier programs within Special Olympics, which worldwide serves nearly 5 million athletes in 180 countries. SOSC is served by 80 full-time employees and approximately 15,000 volunteers, operating annually on approximately $18 million, and serving an 11-county region that reaches from San Diego to San Luis Obispo.

Athlete growth has doubled to nearly 18,000 during Shumard's tenure, while the average age of SOSC's athlete has dropped from 37 to 21. This is largely due to the successful School Partnerships Program, which now accounts for more than 50 percent of SOSC's athletes.

SOSC was awarded the bid for the 2015 Special Olympics World Summer Games—the largest sporting and humanitarian event in the world.

Prior to coming to SOSC, Shumard enjoyed a successful career in sports management at the professional and collegiate levels. Shumard began his career as CSULB's Sports Information Director in 1972. He later moved to California State University, Los Angeles to assume the same position for two years.

Shumard joined the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1975 and was part of the organization's unparalleled business success for the next 12 years. As director of community services and special events, Shumard coordinated the Dodgers' many successful community outreach programs and a host of the franchise's most popular promotions, including Opening Day, Old-Timer's Day and Hollywood Stars Night.

In 1988, Shumard left the Dodger organization to become the executive director of USC's Athletic Centennial, later becoming an assistant athletic director. During his tenure at USC, the Trojans participated in two Rose Bowls and he was part of a development staff that raised more than $7 million annually to support the program. Shumard was named director of athletics at Cal State Fullerton in 1991, a position he held until 1994. While there, two of his teams reached NCAA Championship status.

Shumard came full circle when he returned to CSULB, where he served as executive director of athletics until coming to SOSC in 2005. During his leadership at CSULB, the department tripled the graduation rate of its student-athletes and raised more than $7 million for capital projects, which included the naming of The Pyramid by Mike and Arline Walter and the building of new student-athlete academic and fitness centers.

Shumard is on the board of directors for the Los Angeles Sports Council, International City Racing Foundation, Columbian Foundation and the USC Sports Business Institute, and is chair of the Advisory Council for the CSULB Graduate Program in Sports Management. He holds a bachelor's degree in journalism from California State University, Long Beach.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

TIMOTHY J. ALLEN

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, CARLSTON FAMILY FOUNDATION

Tim Allen is executive director of the Carlston Family Foundation, which recognizes and rewards outstanding teachers in California public high schools. The Foundation holds an annual educational symposium and awards program to acknowledge teachers for their excellence in educating, their commitment to their students' academic and personal successes, and for serving as positive role models.

Allen started his career as a teacher at Arcata High School in 1970, where he taught English and reading, and coached baseball and football before becoming an administrator. As a high school administrator, Allen created one of the first student assistance programs in the country, which became a model for over 200 high school substance abuse prevention, education and training programs throughout the United States. Allen also provided technical assistance and consulting to the California Department of Education "Right to Read" program and served as a technical assistant to the U. S. Department of Education.

Tim left the education field in 1982 to work as a CEO and administrator for substance abuse and psychiatric treatment programs in Florida and Southern California before taking on the role of senior vice president for contracting and behavioral health at Adventist Health Care of Southern California.

Allen has served as an adjunct professor of education at Humboldt State University and California State University, Fullerton, and as a distinguished faculty member of the Suzanne Somers Institute. He also spent 13 years as the director of employee support services for the Anaheim Angels professional baseball team.

Tim is the author of several articles, monographs and chapters on issues related to substance abuse and the family and is the co-author of the book "Powerful Parents...Competent Kids."

Allen earned a bachelor's in English literature, master's degree in educational administration, and a California teaching credential at Humboldt State University.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

JOE BUSCAINO

COUNCILMEMBER, LOS ANGELES CITY COUNCIL

CLASS OF '00, B.A., COMMUNICATIONS

Joe Buscaino is a member of the Los Angeles City Council, representing the 15th District, which covers Harbor City, Harbor Gateway, San Pedro, Watts and Wilmington. He was first elected in January 2012 to fill a vacancy, and re-elected to a full four-year term in March 2013.

Buscaino chairs the council's Public Works and Gang Reduction Committee. As chair, Buscaino is tasked with oversight of the city's gang reduction efforts, and the Department of Public Works, the city's third largest department. Public Works includes a staff of more than 5,000 employees who are responsible for the construction, renovation, and operation of city facilities and infrastructure.

Councilman Buscaino's other committee assignments include Public Safety, Trade, Commerce & Tourism, Housing, and Arts, Parks, Health, Aging, and River. In addition, he serves as the Mayor's appointee to the South Coast Air Quality Management District.

Prior to his election to the City Council, Buscaino served for 15 years as a police officer in the Los Angeles Police Department. His assignments included the Office of Chief of Police, West Traffic Division, Emergency Operations Division, and, for the previous six years, senior lead officer for the Harbor area, where he became a well-liked and well-respected leader in the community. He created the LAPD's first Teen Community Police Advisory Board, an organization that works with teens to problem solve and break the barriers between police and teenagers. His concept of bringing youths' perspectives to problem solving with the police department was implemented citywide in 2011.

Buscaino has served on Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Clubs of the Harbor Area, the San Pedro YWCA's Racial Justice Committee, and the Advisory Council for the Los Angeles Watts Summer Games and is active with Mary Star of the Sea Catholic Church and various Italian-American organizations.

Buscaino has lived in the 15th Council District his entire life, and is a first-generation Italian-American, whose parents emigrated from Italy over 40 years ago. He graduated cum laude with a B.A. in communications from California State University, Dominguez Hills.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

FOREST WHITAKER

ARTIST AND HUMANITARIAN

Forest Whitaker is the Founder and CEO of the Whitaker Peace & Development Initiative, co-founder and chair of the International Institute for Peace, and the UNESCO Special Envoy for Peace and Reconciliation. In addition to his humanitarian work, Whitaker is one of Hollywood's most accomplished and versatile figures. He has received many distinctions for his acting, including the 2007 Academy Award for Best Actor for his portrayal of Ugandan dictator Idi Amin in The Last King of Scotland.

Whitaker believes that communities and nations cannot attain peace and prosperity without heeding the voices of their diverse and vibrant youth. Throughout the world, he and his foundation are committed to providing educational tools and better living conditions to young women and men living in regions touched by violence. In the United States, as member of the President's Committee on the Arts and the Humanities,

Whitaker works with elementary school students to demonstrate to them the limitless power of the arts to express their voices and creative energies. Whitaker's commitment to peace and social issues has led him to work in close collaboration with UNESCO, which seeks to build peace through education, science, culture, and communication. In 2011, Whitaker was designated as a UNESCO Goodwill Ambassador for Peace and Reconciliation. In 2014, he started collaborating with the Office of the Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General for Children and Armed Conflict as an Advocate for Children Affected by War, a topic on which he was invited to speak before the UN Security Council. That same year, he was designated a UNESCO Special Envoy.

Whitaker's artistic and humanitarian achievements have been widely recognized at home and abroad. He has received the Cinema for Peace Award, the Humanitas Prize, the NAACP Chairman's Award, the Los Angeles Press Club's Visionary Award, Refugees International's McCall-Pierpaoli Humanitarian Award, and the Broadcast Film Critics Association's Joel Siegel Award. He currently serves as a senior research scholar at Rutgers University, and a visiting professor at Ringling College of Art and Design.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The tradition of wearing academic gowns, mortarboard caps, tassels and hoods and the carrying of the University Mace originated in Europe during the middle ages and has been an integral feature of American academic tradition since the end of the nineteenth century. The gown is held to be an adaptation of the robe of the friar or priest; the hood, the monk's cowl; and the mortarboard cap recalls the skull cap.

For each of the degree levels, bachelor's, master's and doctoral, the gown sleeves indicate the degree held by the wearer. The bachelor's gown is a yoked, closed-front garment with long, pointed sleeves. The master's can be worn open or closed and has long sleeves, usually closed but slit above the elbow. The doctoral gown has full, bell-shaped sleeves and is trimmed with velvet panels down the front and has velvet bars on each sleeve. The color of the panels and bars is often varied to indicate the academic discipline in which the doctoral degree was earned. The length and shape of the hood also indicate the highest degree earned by the wearer. The color of the velvet border on any hood indicates the wearer's field of study.

Color is an important element of all academic ceremonies. In academics, the colors used to symbolize degrees earned and areas of study are referred to as "faculty colors." They are displayed on doctor's gowns, edgings of hoods, and tassels on caps. The official faculty colors are:

Agriculture – Maize	Music – Pink
Arts and Letters – White	Nursing – Apricot
Business, Accountancy, Commerce – Drab	Oratory (Speech) – Silver Gray
Dentistry – Lilac	Pharmacy – Olive Green
Economics – Copper	Philosophy – Dark Blue
Education – Light Blue	Physical Education – Sage Green
Engineering – Orange	Public Administration – Peacock Blue
Fine Arts – Brown	Public Health – Salmon Pink
Forestry – Russet	Science – Golden Yellow
Journalism – Crimson	Social Work – Citron
Law – Purple	Theology – Scarlet
Library Science – Lemon Yellow	Veterinary Science – Gray
Medicine – Green

SYMBOLS OF OFFICE

THE MACE

The University Mace is a symbol of the legal and chartered authority of the president of the university. When the mace is present, the authority of the university is present. Carrying the University Mace is an immense honor reserved for a highly distinguished faculty member.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN

The University Seal forms the centerpiece of the ceremonial chain worn by the president of the university. Nine gold medallions, each inscribed with the name and years of tenure, represent a prior president of the university and form a chain symbolizing the continuity of university traditions. A crest inscribed with the name of the current president of the university sits at the base of the chain, linking the chain of medallions to the University Seal. The Presidential Chain was first presented to CSU Dominguez Hills president, Herbert L. Carter, at the 1999 Commencement.

ALMA MATER

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, DOMINGUEZ HILLS

*O give us wings to fly, to spurn our night;
Where, Earthbound, we aspired to don the wings of joyous flight
Let friendships soar in human harmony!*

Chorus:

*With lifted voice, uplifted voice, we dedicate to thee,
Dominguez Hills, Dominguez Hills,
Our love and loyalty.*

*Inspire the hearts of all who value truth,
Let knowledge grow, let purpose bloom in lives of love and peace;
Let ever human dignity increase!*

Chorus:

*Dominguez Hills, Dominguez Hills, our University.
We sing your name for all to hear,
Our alma mater dear.*

The Office of the President gives special thanks to all the staff, faculty and students of the campus who participated in making this commencement possible.

The commencement program was prepared by the Office of Ceremonies and Events, the Office of University Communications and Public Affairs, and the Office of Records and Registration.

The California State University is the largest, the most diverse, and one of the most affordable university systems in the country. We are the gateway institution for the great majority of students seeking a baccalaureate education in California, and for those who seek professional training as teachers, nurses, social workers, and engineers. Our 23 campuses serve 447,000 students and employ 45,000 faculty and staff.

With the graduation of the Class of 2015 the CSU will surpass the milestone of having 3 million alumni. We have been celebrating this achievement during the entire 2014-15 academic year all the way through Commencement 2015. The impact of the CSU and its alumni is unparalleled.

The celebration is a great opportunity for alumni to get involved at their campus. You choose what interests you most—from volunteering, being a CSU Dominguez Hills advocate, donating to support students, thanking a faculty or staff member, attending a campus alumni event, or showing off your pride by wearing campus-branded gear—there's a way for everyone to be involved!

We invite all CSU alumni and the Class of 2015 to join the world's largest online yearbook and show the impact of CSU alumni on California, the nation and the world. Join today at classof3million.calstate.edu and spread the word. You're part of something very special—the California State University.
