PRESIDENT'S WELCOME

Dear Graduates,

On behalf of the faculty and staff at California State University, Dominguez Hills, I extend heartfelt congratulations to the Class of 2018, and welcome the many family and friends who are here today to celebrate our graduates.

Commencement is a special day in the life of a graduate. It represents the culmination of your journey toward intellectual and personal growth, as well as the start of the next chapter in your life. It is a time for celebration, but also a time for reflection on what brought you to this day: Faculty who pushed you to think deeper; counselors and librarians who offered guidance; staff who provided resources; loved ones who were always there to encourage you; and for many of you, the reason you dedicated years of your life in this pursuit.

As a new graduate of CSUDH, you join more than 100,000 alumni whose education and degrees have helped transform not just themselves and their families, but the economic, educational, cultural, and political aspects of our region, state, and nation. In whatever path you take next, whether advancing career aspirations or pursuing new academic goals, I am confident each of you will leave your own mark as well.

I wish you continued happiness and success and hope you reflect warmly on your time at Dominguez Hills. I encourage you to maintain an active connection with your alma mater and reap the benefits of continued engagement with the university, serving as mentors and advocates for new students.

Finally, know that wherever life takes you, you will never be without Cal State Dominguez Hills. You forever have our support, you forever have our respect, and you forever are a Toro.

You make us proud.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "W. J. Hagan". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

California State University, Dominguez Hills

CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Class of 2018,

Today, you are surrounded by your peers, loved ones and the entire California State University community – all those who supported you in your journey.

Indeed, celebrate the faculty who deepened your knowledge and expanded your horizons. Celebrate the counselors, advisors, librarians, tutors, coaches, facilities and support staff who created the environment for your success. Celebrate your family, friends and colleagues whose support and belief in you never wavered.

But most importantly, know that we are here to celebrate you – your determination, passion, drive and vision for the future – both your own future and the one you will create for the world.

As new opportunities await you, so too do new responsibilities. For you are now and always part of the CSU alumni family. You join a successful, impactful and generous community more than 3.4 million strong. Together, you build a better tomorrow for your neighbors, for the United States and for our world.

So as you start a new chapter, I encourage you to stay connected to the CSU, both your campus and the larger university. Connect with classmates, seek out faculty as mentors and join alumni chapters. Look for opportunities to give back. Support the generations who seek to follow in your footsteps.

California State University Class of 2018, you are ready. I look forward to all that you will accomplish.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

THE HONORABLE ERIC GARCETTI

MAYOR, CITY OF LOS ANGELES

Eric Garcetti is a fourth-generation Angeleno and the 42nd mayor of Los Angeles. Born and raised in the San Fernando Valley — the son of public servants and the grandson and great-grandson of immigrants from Mexico and Eastern Europe — Mayor Garcetti’s life has been shaped by a deep commitment to the core values of justice, dignity, and equality for all people.

These ideals have fueled the Mayor’s relentless drive to fulfill our common obligation: to give children and families of every race, faith, background, and income the chance to get a good education, live on safe streets, earn a decent wage, breathe clean air and drink clean water, receive affordable medical and child care, and build a future of their own choosing.

Angelenos are experiencing the remarkable results of his vision and leadership: the Mayor led and won a campaign to pass the boldest local infrastructure initiative in American history, funding a once-in-a-generation expansion of public transportation. He launched the L.A. College Promise, the most ambitious higher education access program in the nation — serving more than 4,000 students, many of whom are overcoming poverty and are the first in their families to pursue the dream of higher education. He is confronting a homelessness crisis by leading an unprecedented regional alliance committed to getting people off the streets and ending chronic homelessness. And, in 2015, he put more money in workers’ pockets by raising the minimum wage to $15 an hour, and cut business taxes to help drive a historic economic recovery that has created a record number of jobs in legacy industries like entertainment and aerospace.

The Mayor’s government service began on the L.A. City Council, where he spent four terms as council president before being elected mayor in 2013 and winning re-election in 2017 by the widest margin in the history of Los Angeles.

Beyond his time at City Hall, Mayor Garcetti has served his country as an intelligence officer in the United States Navy Reserve, and taught at the University of Southern California and Occidental College.

The Mayor received his bachelor’s and master’s degrees from Columbia University, and studied as a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University, and later at the London School of Economics. He is also a jazz pianist and photographer.

COMMENCEMENT TRADITIONS

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The tradition of wearing academic gowns, mortarboard caps, tassels and hoods, and the carrying of the University Mace originated in Europe during the middle ages and has been an integral feature of American academic tradition since the end of the nineteenth century. The gown is held to be an adaptation of the robe of the friar or priest; the hood, the monk's cowl; and the mortarboard cap recalls the skull cap.

For each of the degree levels, bachelor's, master's and doctoral, the gown sleeves indicate the degree held by the wearer. The bachelor's gown is a yoked, closed-front garment with long, pointed sleeves. The master's can be worn open or closed and has long sleeves, usually closed but slit above the elbow. The doctoral gown has full, bell-shaped sleeves and is trimmed with velvet panels down the front and has velvet bars on each sleeve. The color of the panels and bars is often varied to indicate the academic discipline in which the doctoral degree was earned. The length and shape of the hood also indicate the highest degree earned by the wearer. The color of the velvet border on any hood indicates the wearer's field of study.

Color is an important element of all academic ceremonies. In academics, the colors used to symbolize degrees earned and areas of study are referred to as "faculty colors." They are displayed on doctoral gowns, edgings of hoods, and tassels on caps. The official faculty colors are:

Agriculture – Maize	Music – Pink
Arts and Letters – White	Nursing – Apricot
Business, Accountancy, Commerce – Drab	Oratory (Speech) – Silver Gray
Dentistry – Lilac	Pharmacy – Olive Green
Economics – Copper	Philosophy – Dark Blue
Education – Light Blue	Physical Education – Sage Green
Engineering – Orange	Public Administration – Peacock Blue
Fine Arts – Brown	Public Health – Salmon Pink
Forestry – Russet	Science – Golden Yellow
Journalism – Crimson	Social Work – Citron
Law – Purple	Theology – Scarlet
Library Science – Lemon Yellow	Veterinary Science – Gray
Medicine – Green

SYMBOLS OF OFFICE

THE MACE

The University Mace is a symbol of the legal and chartered authority of the president of the university. When the mace is present, the authority of the university is present. Carrying the University Mace is an immense honor reserved for a highly distinguished faculty member.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN

The University Seal forms the centerpiece of the ceremonial chain worn by the president of the university. Nine gold medallions, each inscribed with the name and years of tenure, represent a prior president of the university and form a chain symbolizing the continuity of university traditions. A crest inscribed with the name of the current president of the university sits at the base of the chain, linking the chain of medallions to the University Seal. The Presidential Chain was first presented to CSU Dominguez Hills President Herbert L. Carter at the 1999 Commencement.

*O give us wings to fly, to spurn our night;
Where, Earthbound, we aspired to don the wings of joyous flight
Let friendships soar in human harmony!*

*With lifted voice, uplifted voice, we dedicate to thee,
Dominguez Hills, Dominguez Hills,
Our love and loyalty.*

*Inspire the hearts of all who value truth,
Let knowledge grow, let purpose bloom in lives of love and peace;
Let ever human dignity increase!*

*Dominguez Hills, Dominguez Hills, our University.
We sing your name for all to hear,

ALUMNI PINNING CEREMONY

To reinforce to graduates that they will forever be Toros, the California State University, Dominguez Hills Commencement concludes with an Alumni Pinning Ceremony, which is lead by a distinguished alumna or alumnus.

The Alumni Pinning Ceremony highlights the accomplishments of CSUDH graduates while acknowledging their transition into the active Toro network of alumni. This exclusive affiliation draws strength from “Toro Pride,” a feeling of collective energy and belonging that is critical to the growth of CSUDH’s new alumni, and the continued success of the university.

Graduates will be instructed to take the Toro Alumni Pin they received as they walked down the platform and place it on the gown of a graduate at the end of the commencement ceremony as a symbol of change. It signifies the scholarly achievements of CSUDH students, and foretells a rich and rewarding future after graduation as alumni. It is also a lasting emblem of legacy and tradition for California State University, Dominguez Hills.

ONCE A TORO. ALWAYS A TORO.
