Gift-in-Kind IRS Information

California State University, Dominguez Hills

The IRS requires the substantiation, through a qualified appraisal. Of charitable contribution deductions claimed for donations of property other than money and publicly traded securities if the aggregate claimed or reported value of the property exceeds $5,000. IRS Form 8283 is required to be filed by the donor documenting the charitable contribution. If the property is sold within two years after the date contributed, the Foundation is required to file Form 8282, which documents the sale price, with the IRS and the donor. Please note that the regulations do not apply to corporations whose stock is publicly traded.

Per the California Administrative Code Title 5 Subchapter 5, Article 8: any gift of equipment is welcome other than an automobile, truck or bus * if (a) there is no trust condition, reservation or restriction on its use, (b) it will not require more than 100 square feet of floor space for use of construction of specialized facilities, (c) it will not require amounts of State funds for operation, repair and maintenance that are unreasonable in relation to the item received and (d) it is acceptable to the University's Administration. (* Under certain conditions the Chancellor is permitted by the Board to approve the acceptance of vehicles for use by departments, programs or projects on campus.)

Gifts of cash, securities, trusts, insurance, bequests, real estate and other property are welcomed and encouraged by California State University, Dominguez Hills for the furtherance of the University's educational goals. However, since he application of State and Federal laws regarding charitable contributions is affected by the donor's personal circumstances, the Foundation encourages donors to consult with their tax counsel when planning a gift. CSUDH Philanthropic Foundation Tax Identification #47-3097839.
