2017-2018 FEDERAL WORK STUDY ACCEPTANCE LETTER

Listed below is the amount of your Federal Work-Study (FWS) award that you are eligible to earn. Submit this form to your hiring department.

Academic Year Limit $ _____ (You must notify your supervisor of any adjustments to this amount). Adjustments must be made (in some cases) when you are offered additional grant funds or request a loan. The Financial Aid Office must approve any award increase.

Federal Regulations prohibit students from receiving financial aid in excess of their financial need. If there is a change in your financial aid award, the amount of aid you are eligible to receive (including work study) may be adjusted. You are responsible for keeping track of any award changes. Please notify your timekeeper and employer immediately if that happens.

To benefit from this award your hiring department/employer must complete this form and the Student Assistant Hiring packet. This completed form along with documentation to satisfy I-9 requirements and your social security card must be presented to the hiring department/employer for submission to the Human Resources Office (WH-340) before you may begin to work. You will receive a monthly paycheck based on the number of hours worked during the preceding pay period. It is your responsibility to ensure that your hours are submitted on time and correctly via self-service for your supervisor's approval by the last day of each pay period.

To be eligible for this award, you must sign below. Your signature on this form indicates that you have read and understand the amount you may earn is limited to the amount listed above. The first day you may begin work is Friday, September 1, 2017 or the date the hiring process is completed. You may not work beyond Wednesday, May 31, 2018 as a Federal Work Study student. If you are graduating, you may not work beyond May 23, 2018.
