Just for fun...how are you feeling?

Nervous

"I/we really don't want to mess up."

Exhausted

"This college and financial aid process is a lot of work."

Frustrated

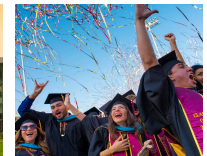

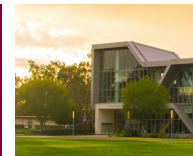

"I turned in my documents, and the office wants more!"

Oh-em-gee!

Overwhelmed & Confused

"I/we just don't know what they are asking me to do."

Or, are you cool as a cucumber?

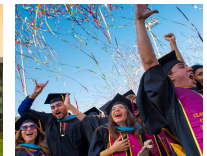

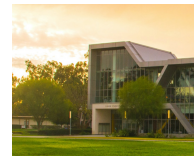

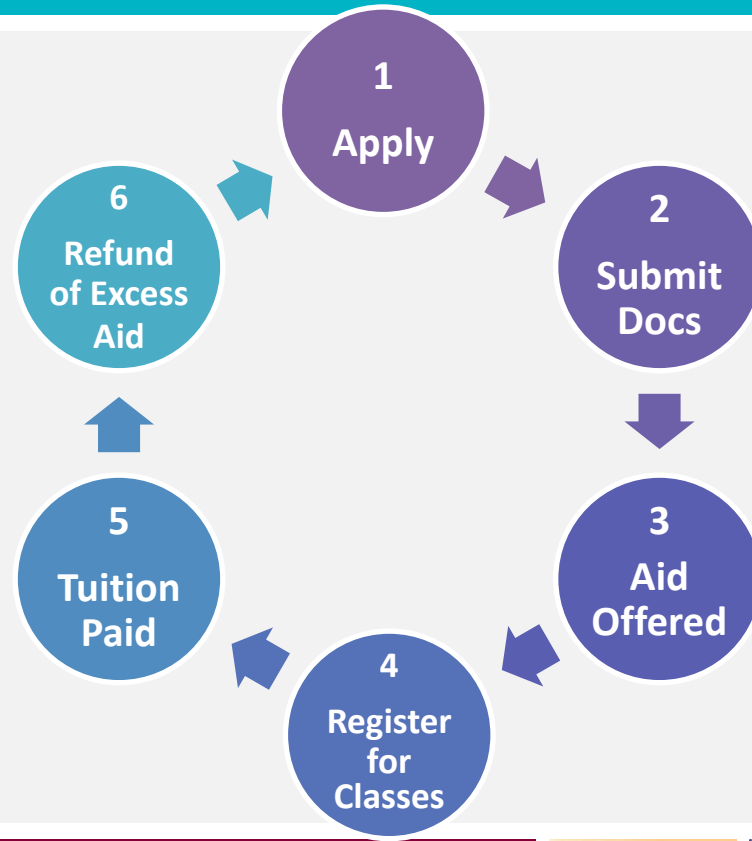

“We got this!”

“Our documents were submitted, and we are just waiting to hear back.”

(or)

“I received my offer notification and I have my financial plan for the year!”

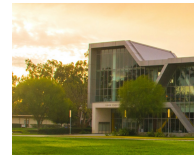

The Financial Aid Process in Six Steps

Let's Review:

Steps 1 – 3

Costs and Types of Aid

The Financial Aid Process: Steps 1 – 3

Step 1: APPLY

- Each new academic year, submit your FAFSA or CA Dream Act application between October 1st – March 2nd
- If you happen to miss the March 2nd priority consideration deadline, you may still submit your application

Step 2: SUBMIT DOCS

- Monitor your “To Do List” and CSUDH Toro Email
- Submit any required documents to the Financial Aid Office
- Priority Document Consideration Deadline is THURSDAY, MAY 13, 2022

Step 3: GET OFFERED AID

- Documents are reviewed and offer notifications are sent
- Grants/scholarships are automatically accepted for all students
- Loans must be accepted or declined by the student
- Currently, students do not have access to accept or decline loans

Financial Aid Offer Notifications

Notification messages are sent via email to the Toro Email accounts for all students.

- To view your Financial Aid Offer, you must login to your myCSUDH account > select “Student Center” > under Finances, select “View Financial Aid”

There are (2) types of Financial Aid Offers:

- An Estimated offer (if additional documents are required to verify eligibility)

Conferencing

For more information about COVID-19 and CSUDH campus planning, preparedness, and prevention please go to <https://www.csudh.edu/together/>.

All students living on campus are REQUIRED to complete the COVID-19 Vaccination Self-Certification form that is now available on their My.CSUDH.edu portal. This self-certification provides the campus with critical information needed to maintain a safe campus environment. Housing applicants who fail to complete the COVID-19 Vaccination Self-Certification form will NOT be assigned to a space in Housing.

CSUDH has also implemented a COVID-19 surveillance testing program, which requires students in University Housing to undergo MANDATORY weekly testing, regardless of vaccination status. All current Housing residents are also required to complete a daily COVID-19 symptom self-screening using the iToros mobile app.

The main University Housing administrative office is now located in the Commons Building of the new Residence Hall (building 72 on the CSUDH campus map).

Our IN-PERSON office hours for Spring 2022 are as follows:

- Monday & Wednesday: 8:00am-12:00pm
- Tuesday, Thursday & Friday: 1:00pm-5:00pm
- Saturday, Sunday & Holidays: CLOSED

Our main (310) 243-2228 telephone line remains open from 8:00am-5:00pm Monday-Friday (holidays excluded). You may also contact us via email at housing@csudh.edu.
