

Financial Support

Revised 4/23/2019

Affidavit of Financial Support for International Students

The Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (BCIS) requires that all students provide evidence of adequate funds to meet the financial obligations of enrollment at a U.S. university. In order for the Admissions Office to issue you a new I-20, we must verify that you have provided us with updated documentation of financial support.

- If you will use your personal funds as the source of financial support, you must provide us with a copy of your bank statement showing the availability of at least $38,292 (undergraduates) or $36,562 (graduates)*. Bank statements can be no older than 6 months.
- If you will be supported by a private sponsor (family member, friend, private institution etc.), the sponsor must either complete and sign the Statement of Financial Obligation below or provide a letter declaring their relationship to you and their intent to provide financial support throughout your studies. In addition, sponsors must also provide an official bank statement showing the availability of at least $38,292 (undergraduates) or $36,562 (graduates)* in liquid assets. Bank statements can be no older than 6 months.

*M.B.A. applicants must show the availability of at least $40,562.

- If you will be sponsored by a public agency (embassy, home government, public institution, religious organization etc.) the agency must provide updated certification that the appropriate costs will be covered if we do not already have a valid current certification.
- Family Members: Students who will be accompanied by a spouse and/or children will need to submit additional documentation of financial support $4,000 for spouse and $3,000 for each child.

F.Y.I. the above tuition amounts are estimates and are subject to change without notice. Actual expenses may vary.

Please complete the following and submit it along with your updated bank documentation. These items will be needed before we can issue you a new I-20. Bank documentation must be in English or accompanied by an official English translation.
