A PLACE FOR LEARNING AND THRIVING
CSUDH ranks among the nation’s top 100 universities for the percentage of graduates employed.*

*Outcomes based on employment and average salary earned.

A PLACE FOR LEARNING. AND THRIVING.
On CSU Dominguez Hills’ inviting campus, you will find limitless opportunities to connect with friends, pursue interests, get involved and make the most of your university experience. Inside small, interactive classes, faculty mentors provide guidance as well as expertise. Outside the classroom, you will benefit from a wide range of student services to support your academic performance, career goals and personal growth.
CSUDH offers a dynamic campus community, where you’ll discover endless opportunities to get involved, make connections and explore your interests. Meet up with friends for movie nights on the North Lawn. Take in a concert or check out the new exhibit at our University Art Gallery. Savor new flavors at the multicultural unity festival or show your Toro pride at Homecoming. Get 2 for the price of 1 by taking in an LA Galaxy soccer game or an LA Chargers football game at the StubHub Center on campus. There’s always something to do, and someone to experience it with.

DOMINGUEZ HILLS FIRST-YEAR EXPERIENCE (#DHFYE)

A unique program offered at CSUDH, the Dominguez Hills First-Year Experience (#DHFYE) prepares incoming first-time freshmen for a strong first year at the university with the academic skills, connections, resources and confidence necessary to succeed in class and on campus.

#DHFYE helps you transition to new college-level coursework requirements and university life with an accelerated, high-impact, six-week summer course held on the CSUDH campus before you start your first term. As part of this program, incoming freshman have the opportunity to:

- Earn credits toward their degrees and be better prepared to graduate on time.
- Make friendships that last throughout college and beyond.
- Connect with a dedicated peer mentor and academic advisor for extra academic support.
- Get a free laptop to use in and out of class.
- Take part in College Knowledge workshops for tips on succeeding on campus.
- Receive no-cost supplemental instruction for help with classwork and studies.
- Engage with professors in small, intimate and interactive class settings.

Learn more at CSUDH.EDU/DHFYE.

DOMINGUEZ HILLS TRANSFER LEARNING COMMUNITY (#DHTLC)

The Dominguez Hills Transfer Learning Community (#DHTLC) serves as a bridge for transfer students as they transition from community college to the CSUDH campus. Through #DHTLC, transfer students are supported as they find their place at CSUDH; develop academic, self-management and critical thinking skills; and engage in career planning and major/career exploration. #DHTLC participants benefit from:

- Comprehensive advising beginning at the community college.
- Opportunity to take a CSUDH Upper-Division G.E. course.
- Early access to their major department advisor.
- The opportunity to attend Transitional Enrichment Workshops.
- Access to a transfer peer coach.

* The CSU makes every effort to keep student costs to a minimum. Fees listed in published schedules or student accounts may need to be increased when public funding is inadequate. Therefore, CSU must reserve the right, even after fees are initially charged or initial fee payments are made, to increase or modify any listed fees. All listed fees, other than mandatory systemwide fees, are subject to change without notice, until the date when instruction for a particular semester or quarter has begun. All CSU listed fees should be regarded as estimates that are subject to change upon approval by the Board of Trustees, the Chancellor, or the Presidents, as appropriate. Changes in mandatory systemwide fees will be made in accordance with the requirements of the Working Families Student Fee Transparency and Accountability Act (Sections 66028 - 66028.8 of the Education Code).
