

Sexual Harassment is prohibited at California State University Dominguez Hills.

Sexual Harassment is unwelcome verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct of a sexual nature.

It may include sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other conduct of a sexual nature where:

1. Submission to or rejection of the conduct is the basis for a decision related to employment or education; or
2. The conduct is severe and persistent enough to create an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.

TITLE IX

Sexual Harassment Resources & Options

YOU ARE NOT ALONE.

“Who Can I Talk To?”

If you have experienced behavior or conduct that you think may be sexual harassment, please know that CSUDH has resources on campus that can provide you with support and information about your options.

If you are interested in seeking support, you can contact the CSUDH confidential Advocate or Student Psychological Services. These resources will keep anything you say to them completely confidential.

To report the incident to the University to discuss how to address the situation, you can contact CSUDH's Title IX Officer.

If you are worried about your safety or to make a criminal complaint, you can call the University Police 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

You may also submit inquiries or complaints to the Office for Civil Rights (OCR): (415) 486-5555, TDD (877) 521-2172 or email at OCR.SanFrancisco@ed.gov.

WE ARE HERE TO HELP.

“What Should I Do?”

1. Go to a Safe Place.

Your safety is our top priority. If you do not feel safe, call the University Police immediately at (310) 243-3333 or 911.

Consider contacting CSUDH's confidential Victim Advocate at (310) 243-2567.

2. Know That What Happened was Not Your Fault.

No one deserves or asks to be sexually harassed.

3. Get Support and Resources.

The Advocate can provide support and assist you with finding external resources.

4. Consider Reporting.

We take all reports seriously and will investigate them promptly and thoroughly. You can make a report to the CSUDH Title IX Officer at (310) 243-3492. You are also encouraged to report to the University Police Department at (310) 243-3333. The confidential Advocate or Title IX Officer can assist you with this, as well.

“What happens if I report it to the University?”

The CSUDH confidential Advocate can assist you with reporting the incident to the University:

Mayra Romo

mromo@csudh.edu | 310-243-2567

1

The report can also be made directly to the Title IX Officer:

Elizabeth Schrock

Welch Hall, room B-470H

eschrock@csudh.edu | 310-243-3492

She will arrange accommodations and interim safety measures.

2

If you choose to pursue an investigation at CSUDH, the Title IX Officer will select a trained Title IX Investigator to collect evidence (like photographs or texts), interview with you, the accused person, and witnesses. You may provide witnesses and evidence that may be relevant.

The Investigator will complete a report within 60 working days. The Title IX Officer will notify you and the accused person within 10 working days in writing whether or not the accused person violated a CSU Executive order using the preponderance of the evidence standard.

You and the accused person may appeal the decision to the CSU Chancellor's Office within 10 working days, and they will respond within 30 working days with a final decision.

If the final outcome includes a violation of a CSU Executive Order, the accused person will be referred to the Student Conduct Officer, Human Resources Office, or Office of Faculty Affairs to determine sanctions. You may be invited to conference with the appropriate administrator. A hearing may take place. You and the accused person will be allowed to appeal the sanctions.
