

CURRICULUM & INSTRUCTION OPTION (31 UNITS)

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS:

- Minimum of 2.75 GPA in the last 60 units attempted
- Two letters of recommendation that speak to your potential for graduate studies
- Statement of Intent describing relevant experiences, purpose for pursuing graduate study, and a clear connection to justice & equity in the College of Education mission

To apply to the university and program, visit calstate.edu/apply and csudh-coe.smapply.io.

APPLICATION DEADLINES:

For Fall, the application deadline is July 15.

For Spring, the application deadline is November 15.

CONTACT INFORMATION

ci@csudh.edu

BECOME A TEACHER/SCHOLAR

The MA in Education – Curriculum & Instruction (C&I) option is designed for individuals committed to justice and equity in education. We engage cutting edge interdisciplinary research, critical educational theories, and practical application across all PK-12 content areas. Develop expertise in curriculum design and instructional practices to examine school systems through frameworks related to: power and resistance, intersectionality, critical pedagogies, educational justice, and critical literacies. Upcoming course offerings include: research methods for the teacher/scholar, trauma/healing informed pedagogies, Ethnic Studies & education, and critical race praxis in education.

REQUIRED COURSES

GED 500 - Research Methods in Education

TED 505 - Educational Psychology

TED 506 - Multicultural and Social Foundations of Education

CUR 510 - Process of Curriculum Development

CUR 519 - Advanced Study in Curriculum Research and Instructional Practices

TED 560 - MA in Education: Curriculum and Instruction Capstone or TED 599 - Thesis

A. Select one course from the following (3 units):

CUR 515 - Seminar in Curriculum Development in Reading and the Language Arts

CUR 516 - Seminar in Curriculum Development in Science and Math

B. Electives (12 units):

Select 12 units from Education or the teaching subject areas with the approval of an advisor or program coordinator. Up to 9 units from 400-level courses can be used (3 units must be 500 level).

Connect with Dr. Edward Curammeng at ecurammeng@csudh.edu, C&I Program Coordinator or the TED office at (310) 243-3496 for more information.