WE ARE ALL

At California State University, Dominguez Hills, we dedicate ourselves to building a better future for each other, our communities, and all of California. We’re proud of our responsibility to help grow and foster the next generation of leaders. Each and every Toro is unique in pursuit and personality, but all are united in their drive to make a difference and give back. What they learned at CSUDH is that no matter where you want to go, we’ll help you get there and be with you every step of the way.
CSUDH ranked 18th in Washington Monthly magazine's Top 150 Master's Universities.*

*Outcomes are based on social mobility, or the ability of graduates to earn a good living conduct, research, and students who go on to earn Ph.D.
GRADUATE EDUCATION

WHY IS GRADUATE EDUCATION IMPORTANT?

- Employees with a master’s degree enjoy greater autonomy in job duties, more control over career progression, and greater work satisfaction (Council of Graduate Schools, 2018).

- Among U.S. workers, those with a degree above the bachelor’s degree can anticipate earning $1,375,735.00 more in a lifetime than workers with a bachelor’s degree or high school diploma. (Suzanne Ortega, President, Council of Graduate Schools, 2018).

- Employees with a master’s degree demonstrate increased innovation, and scientific discovery towards the public good.

GRADUATE ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

GENERAL ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
The following requirements must be met to qualify for general admission to the University.

Completion of a four-year college course of study and an acceptable baccalaureate degree from an institution accredited by a regional accrediting association or completion of equivalent academic preparation as determined by appropriate campus authorities.

Good academic standing at the last college or university attended.

A grade point average of at least 2.5 (A = 4.0) in the last 60 semester (90 quarter) units attempted.

Satisfactory adherence to the professional, personal, scholastic, and other standards for graduate study, including qualifying examinations, as appropriate campus authorities may prescribe.

Many graduate programs require a supplemental application and/or additional documentation for admission consideration. Please contact the department for specific admission requirements.

STEPS FOR APPLYING TO CSUDH

1. Submit an application online at csudh.edu/apply and pay the $55 nonrefundable application fee. You will receive an application acknowledgement letter to let you know that we have received your application, which includes your student ID number and account information.

2. Activate your my.csudh.edu account to view your application status and determine if there are any documents you need to submit.

3. Check with your department for supplemental requirements and submit additional application if applicable.
There’s always something happening on campus, and we’re excited to have you be a part of it. You’ll find activities that bring Toros together with all kinds of interests and perspectives, from working with classmates and mentors on your shared passion to getting involved with clubs and in the community, to cheering on one of our sports teams at the StubHub Center, right here on campus. Make some time to stop by the Loker Student Union and try to spot Teddy.

Students who live on campus are steps away from one of the most special things about being a Toro: other Toros. Your new neighbors will become some of your closest, lifelong friends, bonding over social activities, outings, movie nights, and late-night snacks. Twenty-four-hour, live-in Residential Life Staff are here to make you feel at home and show you the way.

Your on-campus living includes
- Fully furnished one, two, or three bedroom apartments
- Two students per bedroom
- Room accommodations
- Free WiFi and basic cable TV
- Full kitchen

CAMPUS EVENTS
- Spring Fling Concert
- Homecoming Week
- Greek Day
- University Art Gallery Exhibits
- Multicultural Unity Festival
- Theatrical Performances

*The CSU makes every effort to keep student costs to a minimum. Fees listed in published schedules or student accounts may need to be increased when public funding is inadequate. Therefore, CSU must reserve the right, even after fees are initially charged or initial fee payments are made, to increase or modify any listed fees. All listed fees, other than mandatory systemwide fees, are subject to change without notice, until the date when instruction for a particular semester or quarter has begun. All CSU listed fees should be regarded as estimates that are subject to change upon approval by the Board of Trustees, the Chancellor, or the Presidents, as appropriate. Changes in mandatory systemwide fees will be made in accordance with the requirements of the Working Families Student Fee Transparency and Accountability Act (Sections 66028 - 66028.6 of the Education Code).
In support of undergraduate and graduate student research, scholarship, and creative activity, the annual CSUDH Student Research Day competition is held to honor our students and their faculty mentors. This professional conference celebrates a wide array of research disciplines and provides a unique opportunity for Toros to share their research in a supportive community.
