

APPLYING TO GRADUATE SCHOOL Workshop Series

Planning to pursue graduate studies in the social sciences? This workshop series is designed to guide you through the graduate school application process with insights from faculty experts in your field. Learn how to identify programs that align with your academic and career aspirations, understand key application components, and enhance your application materials. This series will also explore funding opportunities, strategies for crafting a compelling personal statement, and tips for successfully navigating the admissions process. Join us to gain the knowledge and confidence needed to take the next step in your academic journey!

Social Sciences

APRIL 17, 2025

2:30 PM – 3:30 PM

VIA ZOOM

Scan to Register & Join

