Do you want students to contribute to your research? Do you lack resources to support their projects? There are many pots of money on campus to help support student researchers that faculty may not be familiar with and we will go over how to access them. There are also external funding sources faculty can apply to targeted at increasing undergraduate participation in research. Co-sponsored with the Office of Undergraduate Research.

OCT 18
11:30 AM-12:45 PM
Via ZOOM
Click here to Join!