If you have completed your research project, or have reached a significant milestone on the way toward publishable work, you can give an oral presentation of your research. Both an abstract and a supplemental document are required.

If your project is still underway, or it is a part of a larger project, you can present the status of your contribution to the work in a poster format. An abstract describing your project is required.

If you are just getting started in your project, or are new to research programs, you can discuss the work you are doing in a roundtable format, moderated by a faculty member. An abstract describing your project idea is required.

Choose a format of the presentation that suits you the best:
