

CURRICULUM VITAE 06/2020
Name:	Kate Fawver
Academic Position and Address:	Professor of History Department of History -LCH A342 California State University, Dominguez Hills Carson, CA 90747 United States Fax (310) 516-3408, Phone (310) 243-3494 Email: kfawver@csudh.edu
Education:	Ph. D. History, University of California Riverside, 2002. Dissertation "Household and Family Structure in the Eighteenth- Century Chesapeake." Advisors: Carol Shammas, Sharon V. Salinger, Roger Ransom. M. A. History, Northern Illinois University, 1992. B. A. History, Northern Illinois University, 1990.
Academic Positions:	Professor of History, CSUDH, 2013-present Associate Professor of History, CSUDH 2008-2013 Assistant Professor of History, CSUDH, 2003-2008; early tenure earned 2008
Publications:	"Neolocality and household structure in Early America," The History of the Family . (October, 2012) Fawver, K. "Introduction". The History of the Family . (October, 2012) "Gender and the Structure of the Planter-Household in the Eighteenth Century," Early American Studies , (Fall 2006). "The Slave Family in the Chesapeake: New Evidence, New Perspectives" in Colonial Chesapeake: New Perspectives , Eds. Debra Meyers and Melanie Perreault, (Lexington Press, 2005).
Recent National and International Conferences:	"Neolocality and Household Structure in Early America" American Origins Seminar, The Huntington Library and the USC, San Marino, California, October 29, 2011 "The Demography of Female Autonomy and Dependence in Early North American Households" Berkshire Annual Conference on Women Historians, Minneapolis, Minnesota, June 2008 "What can we learn from pre-modern American lists?" Authority and Dependence in the Pre-Modern American Household: A Case Study of the 1775 Revolutionary Enumeration," The Potential and Limitations of a List, The Center for Theoretical Study at the Institute for Advanced Studies at Charles University and the Academy of Sciences of the Czech Republic, Prague, November 8- 9, 2007,. "Gender, Race, and Household Structure in the Eighteenth-Century Chesapeake." Were Women Present at the Demographic Transition? University of Nijmegen, Nijmegen, The Netherlands, May 20-21, 2005. "Women's Economies in the Chesapeake: The Organization of Labor in a Plantation Society" Women's Economies in Early America, The Program for Early American Economy and Society (PEAS), Philadelphia, Pennsylvania .October 1, 2004, "The Economics of Enslaved Children: A Demographic Analysis of Plantation Structure in the British Colony of Maryland in 1776." Avignon Conference on Slavery and Unfree Labour: Children and Slavery, Avignon, France, May 20-22, 2004. "Households and Families in the Chesapeake: New Methods." presented at the Western Association of Women Historians Annual Conference, Huntington Library, San Mateo California, 2000. "A Demographic Model of the Planter-Household in the Eighteenth- Century Chesapeake." presented at the Social Science History Association Annual Meeting, Fort Worth, Texas, 1999.

Fellowships, Grants, Honors, Awards	Fulbright Teaching Scholar, Udmurtskiy Gosudarstvennyy Universitet, Izhevsk, Udmurt Republic, Russian Federation 2014-2015  CSUDH Excellence in Faculty Service Award 2009-2010  Integrated Public-Use Manuscripts Summer Workshop, Minnesota Population Center, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, 2006  Lord Baltimore Research Fellow, Maryland Historical Society, Baltimore, Maryland 2005-2006.  RSCAAP Research and Travel Grant (CSUDH), 2005
Committee Service	History Department Chair 2010-2014  Student Academic Petition and Appeals Committee (2006-2007) College of Arts and Humanities Curriculum Committee 2003-2005, 2007-2008  College of Arts and Humanities Travel Advisory Committee 2010 University Budget Committee 2008-2010  Academic Senate (CSUDH) 2006-2008  Academic Senate Executive Committee 2007-present ASCSU Senator 2009-present  Vice Chair CSU Chancellor's Advisory Committee General Education 2012-present  Commissioner, Carson Historical Commission 2010-present  University Budget Committee 2008-2011, 2013-2015, 2017-present