California State University, Dominguez Hills University Housing License Agreement – Terms & Conditions, Academic Year 2019-2020

This License Agreement (hereafter this “Agreement”) is entered into between the Trustees of the California State University, acting by and through California State University, Dominguez Hills (hereafter the “University”), and the person named on the License Agreement (hereafter the “Licensee”). Submitting an online or hard-copy version of this Agreement to CSUDH University Housing (including an Agreement signed by a parent or legal guardian for students under 18 years of age) shall constitute acceptance of the Agreement terms and conditions by the student. This Agreement is considered accepted by the University on the date which the University sends out an official housing confirmation letter or email to the Licensee.

I. Obligations of the University

A. Terms of Occupancy and License

1. Academic Year Occupancy (Fall Semester 2019 and Spring Semester 2020)

The University grants the Licensee permission to occupy a bed space within the University Housing student apartments (hereafter the “Premises”) for the period beginning on August 19, 2019 – the start of the academic year at the University (hereafter this “Academic Year”) – and ending at noon on May 20, 2020 – the end of the Academic Year for all students. The University may withdraw such permission in accord with the terms provided in section III B of this Agreement.

Licensee shall have no right to occupy or use the Premises beyond or in addition to the Academic Year provided; however, the University may, at its sole discretion, add permitted days of occupancy as needed to best manage the check-in process and orientate various classes of students (i.e. First-Year, Transfer, Upper-class returning students) on various welcome days as published, announced, or approved in advance by CSUDH University Housing. Specific assignment of a bed space shall be made at the discretion of the University and may be changed by the University without notice.

i. Winter Break and Intersession; (12/20/19 – 01/16/20):

University offices will be closed for many of these dates and University Housing office hours, programs, and mail delivery will be significantly reduced during this time. Licensees may leave personal belongings in their apartments during the Winter Break if they intend to be enrolled in classes for following spring semester. Licensee acknowledges that any loss or damage to personal belongings shall be the Licensee’s sole responsibility.

Licensees seeking Winter Break access to Premises must request access in advance as announced and instructed by University Housing staff – typically during finals week when staff will be available to extend keycard access for qualified Licensees. In the absence of advance permission from University staff, Licensee shall not have access to or use of Premises during Winter Break.

Winter Break access to Premises may, at University’s sole discretion, be granted to licensee in accordance with the following items and conditions:

- a. Residents who request access to Premises during Winter Break and Intersession may need to complete a Winter Break Addendum before break access is granted. Accommodations during the Winter Break are based on staffing and available utilities and services.
- b. Only Licensees continuing from the fall to spring term are eligible to occupy Premises during the winter break.
- c. Students approved to stay during the Winter Break may pay additional occupancy fees based on room type and length of stay.

- d. Many customary University services will be limited or not available during this break, including (but not limited to) mail services, package delivery, dining, and other regular student union/campus offerings, office hours and services.

- ii. Spring Recess Occupancy; (03/29/20–04/4/20)

This Agreement grants the Licensee permission to remain in their assigned space during the spring break period providing the Licensee is enrolled and bound to the terms of this agreement for the spring semester. During the spring break period many customary University services will be limited or not available including (but not limited to) mail services, package delivery, dining, and other regular student union/campus offerings, office hours and services.

2. Summer Occupancy

The University may grant the Licensee permission to occupy Premises for the summer term before or after the Academic Year if 1. Licensee submits a separate application requesting summer housing and 2. Licensee meets eligibility requirement for summer housing according to the terms within section II B of this Agreement. Room rates and occupancy dates apply as listed in the current University Housing Room Rate, Payment, and Fee Schedule.

- B. Housing Assignments

The University assigns Licensee to a bed space and does not guarantee specific room types, apartments or roommates. The University shall have the right to reassign the Licensee to a different apartment or bedroom without the consent of the Licensee prior to or during the term of the agreement.

1. If there is an increased need for housing space on campus, it may be necessary to modify the design of the living community areas to maximize living spaces.
2. In the event that one of the occupants moves out of Licensee's room, University Housing reserves the right to assign a new roommate(s) or to reassign the remaining Licensee(s) to another living unit in order to consolidate space.
3. Licensee agrees to not occupy an unassigned vacant space nor permit any other person to occupy an unassigned vacant space.
4. Licensee agrees that the assigned space is licensed for residential use only. Licensee shall not use the space as a business address, nor shall Licensee conduct any business activities on the premises.

- C. Enhancement of Educational Experience

The University shall maintain a professional staff to work with students to develop community on the Premises, in order to enhance the social, educational and recreational experiences of the students. The University shall provide opportunities for input from Licensees on the development of the community. Licensee agrees to recognize the importance of maintaining the Premises/University Housing building and grounds as an environment conducive for fellow Licensees to study, live, and sleep in the student housing facilities. While in this community, Licensee agrees not to disturb this environment.

- D. Utilities, Services, and Furnishings

The University shall pay for water, trash removal, electricity and gas for the Premises. However, the University may, at its discretion, charge Licensee for any excessive use of the aforementioned utilities. The University shall also provide wireless Internet access to Licensees at no additional charge, but the University makes no commitment to connectivity speed and University Housing is not responsible for intermittent service or other related interruptions which may occur. The University may provide satellite television connectivity, but makes no commitment to the number or availability of any channels. The University shall provide furnishings, which are listed by University Housing, in the condition thereof noted, on the inventory section of University Housing's online Housing Portal (hereafter the "Inventory") which is hereby incorporated in this Agreement as though fully set forth herein. The Licensee shall accept and add notes to the Inventory at the time of the Licensee's first-day occupation of the Premises.

- E. Construction and Renovation

Construction and renovations on the California State University, Dominguez Hills campus may occur in or near the housing facilities. Work is generally scheduled during normal daytime hours (7:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.). Construction projects could result in disturbances and disruptions, including but not limited to, increased noise and dust in the area. University Housing will provide notification of construction in or near student apartments whenever possible. By signing this Agreement, the Licensee agrees that they have been advised of possible construction and acknowledges disturbances and disruptions resulting from construction are not grounds for termination of this agreement or adjustment in housing charges.

II. Obligations of the Licensee

A. Age

The Licensee must be a high school graduate or equivalent and the Licensee must be at least 17 years of age and turning at least 18 years of age within the Academic Year.

B. Eligibility for Occupancy

To maintain eligibility for occupancy during the Academic Year, the Licensee must be an enrolled student at CSUDH for a minimum of 12 undergraduate or 6 graduate units during each semester. Exceptions may be granted by the Director of University Housing or a designee, at his or her sole discretion.

To maintain Housing eligibility for the summer term, the Licensee must meet one of the following criteria:

1. Enrollment at CSUDH during the summer academic semester for six or more units;
2. Employment by CSUDH during the summer academic term;
3. Enrollment for 12 undergraduate or 6 graduate units at CSUDH in the preceding spring academic semester and the following fall academic semester;
4. Exceptions may be granted by the Director of University Housing or a designee, at his or her sole discretion.

Enrollment in Open University in any given academic term, does not count toward the number of units required for occupancy. Students enrolled in the American Language and Culture Program (ALCP) are eligible for occupancy on a space-available basis.

C. Room Charges

1. The Licensee shall pay the room rate that is specified in the University Housing Room Rate, Payment, and Fee Schedule established by University Housing which is hereby incorporated in this Agreement as though fully set forth herein. The rate of the room will be based on the license term and room type of the Licensee's unit – generally a double-occupancy bedroom within a two-person apartment; a double-occupancy bedroom within a four-person apartment; or double-occupancy bedroom within a six-person apartment. Limited single-occupancy bedrooms (i.e. one student per bedroom) may be offered in special circumstances, as deemed necessary or appropriate by the sole discretion of the University, and some bedrooms may be converted to allow triple occupancy when there is a need for additional beds as deemed necessary by the University. There may be additional terms and conditions set forth in the University Housing Room Rate, Payment, and Fee Schedule, and those terms and conditions are incorporated in this Agreement as though fully set forth herein.
2. In addition to the aforementioned fees, the Licensee shall pay, prior to occupying the Premises, a cleaning and damage Security Deposit as specified in the University Housing Room Rate, Payment, and Fee Schedule. This deposit shall be returned to the Licensee after they have vacated the Premises, less any deductions for housing charges still owed, and/or cleanup and repair expenses incurred by the University for the Premises and/or furnishings on the Inventory beyond ordinary wear and tear. The University will also assess charges to the Licensee for cleanup and repair expenses that exceed the amount of Security Deposit.
3. If the Licensee is paying for University room charges from financial aid, the Licensee hereby authorizes the University to deduct the amount necessary to pay these fees from their financial-aid award during the academic semester for which the financial aid is received. The Licensee shall be responsible for any room charges or other fee obligations that are not fully covered by the financial aid award. Payment is due according to dates established in the University Housing Room Rate, Payment, and Fee Schedule.
4. If the Licensee is assigned or executes a License Agreement after the opening date of the semester set forth in the Terms of Occupancy herein, the term of the License Agreement shall be prorated.

D. Maintenance of the Premises

1. The Licensee shall at all times clean and maintain the Premises in good order and repair.
2. The Licensee agrees to recognize the importance of maintaining the Premises as an environment that is conducive for fellow students to study, live and sleep.
3. The Licensee agrees not to disturb the Premises or its environment.
4. The Licensee shall make no alterations to the Premises without the written permission from the University.
5. The Licensee shall not keep on the Premises any highly flammable materials, firearms, ammunition, fireworks, explosives, dangerous weapons, or any other material or instrument that the University believes poses an unreasonable risk of damage or injury.
6. In the event the Licensee fails to clean and maintain the premises or furnishings in good order and repair, the Licensee shall pay promptly the University reasonable costs incurred in returning the unit to a condition of good order and repair. The Licensee's security deposit, or a portion thereof, may be expended for the purpose of payment for such costs.
7. The University is not responsible for damage, destruction, loss or theft of the Licensee's personal property that is or was located on the Premises at any time, including periods when the Licensee is not in occupancy or after the Agreement period has expired. The Licensee bears sole responsibility and discretion as to the securing, protecting and insuring against damage of their personal property. The Licensee acknowledges that the University has no insurance to cover the personal or property damage of the Licensee. (The Licensee may purchase their own renter's insurance.)

E. Adherence to Rules and Regulations

The Licensee shall at all times obey the rules, regulations, policies and prohibitions set forth in Title V of the California Code of Regulations (insofar as they pertain to student conduct, generally, or specifically student housing) or established in University Housing Policies and Regulations prior to or during the Agreement period. All such rules, regulations, policies and prohibitions are incorporated in this Agreement as though fully set forth herein.

F. Health and Insurance

1. During the Agreement period, the Licensee is encouraged to have and maintain health and accident insurance with minimum coverage of $230 per day in hospital benefits and $150 in medical benefits, $5,000 in surgical benefits and $50 in emergency outpatient benefits per accident or illness.
2. Licensees considered to be matriculated International Students or International Students of other University Programs are required to maintain health insurance, per University guidelines.
3. Prior to occupying the Premises, the Licensee must demonstrate fulfillment of all immunization requirements of the State of California and California State University as managed by the University's Student Health Services Office.
4. First-year students will be provided information about the meningococcal disease and the availability of a vaccine. Though meningitis vaccination is not required, it is strongly recommend by the national Centers for Disease Control and Prevention for all individuals living in student housing.
5. The Licensee also affirms that they do not have a health condition that might be affected by group living since our student residences multiple-occupancy facilities with shared spaces. Persons with pre-existing conditions such as, but not limited to, environmental allergies or asthma, may find such conditions exacerbated. They should consult their physician.

III. Expiration, Revocation and Cancellation of the Agreement

A. Normal Expiration

The license conferred by this Agreement shall expire on the date specified in Section I. A. of this Agreement.

B. Revocation by the University

The University may revoke this Agreement and initiate removal and/or banishment of a Licensee upon the occurrence of any of the following reasons:

1. Nonpayment of room charges or fees;
2. Failure to be enrolled in the required number of academic units;
3. Selling, using, knowingly possessing, or being in the presence of restricted or dangerous drugs, controlled substances, or narcotics as those terms are used in California or Federal statutes;
4. Possession of any firearm, knife, deadly weapon, ammunition, fireworks, explosives or dangerous chemical;
5. Misuse, abuse, theft or destruction of campus property or misuse, abuse, theft or destruction of the property of any member of the campus community;
6. Physical abuse towards any campus community member or the threat of such abuse;
7. Falsification of any legitimately required information requested by the University;
8. An emergency in which the peaceful and orderly operation of the University, or the health and safety of any person, is or may be jeopardized;
9. Administrative necessity of the University;
10. The Licensee's breach of any term or condition of the Agreement, including failure to abide by University Housing Policies and Regulations.

Removal of a Licensee will generally be proceeded by a three-day removal notice; however, depending on the severity of the situation found to warrant removal, shorter notice may be permitted and necessary.

C. Cancellation by the Licensee

The Licensee is aware that cancellation requests must be approved by the University before the agreement is terminated.

1. Cancellations prior to the start of the Agreement with at least 30-day written notice

The Licensee may cancel this Agreement for any reason by providing written notice to CSUDH University Housing at least 30-calendar days before the first day of the Agreement period. If approved, all fees, with exception of the $30 application fee, will be credited to the Licensee's student account.

2. Cancellations prior to the start of the Agreement without 30-day written notice

Any request by the Licensee to cancel this Agreement less than 30-calendar days before the first day of the Agreement period must include a statement of reasons thereof. With appropriate documentation and verification, the University may, at its sole discretion, grant or deny a cancellation of the Agreement based on the following standards:

- i. End of student status
- ii. Marriage
- iii. Military service
- iv. Extreme hardship (compelling and unanticipated medical or financial problems beyond Licensee's control arising after the date of execution of their License Agreement. When financial difficulty is asserted as the basis for extreme hardship, students must show that they have exhausted all possible options, including taking out loans.)

A $50 cancellation fee and a prorated daily rate starting from the date the Licensee requests the cancellation through the end of the required 30-day notice period may be collected. All other reasons to cancel this Agreement under this subsection shall be granted or denied at the sole discretion of the University. If the University is able to find a suitable student replacement for the Licensee with no impact to overall housing facility occupancy, the Licensee will receive a refund, less the $30 application fee.

3. Cancellations without a notice prior to the Agreement (no show without written cancellation)

If the Licensee fails to submit a written request to cancel and does not check in within seven days of the beginning of the Agreement, the Licensee will be charged according to the Section III, C. 2.

4. Cancellations after the start of the Agreement period

Any Licensee who requests to cancel this Agreement after it has begun must provide written notice and reason thereof. With appropriate documentation and verification, the University may, at its sole discretion, grant or deny a cancellation of the License Agreement based on the following standards:

- i. End of student status or withdrawal from the University
- ii. Marriage
- iii. Military service
- iv. Extreme hardship (compelling and unanticipated medical or financial problems beyond Licensee's control arising after the date of execution of their License Agreement. When financial difficulty is asserted as the basis for extreme hardship, students must show that they have exhausted all possible options, including taking out loans.)

A $50 cancellation fee may be collected from the Licensee. The Licensee shall be charged a prorated daily rate from the date the Licensee requests the cancellation through the end of the required 30-day notice period. All other reasons to cancel this Agreement under this subsection shall be granted or denied at the sole discretion of the University.

Approved Cancellations for the reason of withdrawal: University Housing will conduct a mid-term enrollment review of all Licensees released from their Agreement due to withdrawal from the University. In the event the Licensee has enrolled subsequent to his/her release from their License Agreement, the balance of fees associated with the original Agreement will be reinstated in full. If the University denies Licensee's request to cancel this License Agreement, Licensee will continue to be assessed room charges for the full occupancy period.

D. Abandonment or Termination by the Licensee

Any property of the Licensee remaining on the premises after abandonment, termination, removal or revocation of this License may be retained or disposed of through sales, donation or in such manner as the University determines in its sole discretion. In the case of abandonment, the University may, at its discretion, keep or dispose of the items worth less than $300 if the Licensee has not requested, in writing, the return of the property within 15 days of receipt of notice from the University. (Notice of abandoned property will be sent via the student's University email address and/or by postal mail using the student's current address on file with the University. It is the Licensee's responsibility to make sure that his/her contact information is kept current.) In cases where property has been lost or is otherwise unclaimed and is worth $300 or more, the University, after three months, may sell the items at public auction. The University may charge a reasonable storage fee before the return of property. The Licensee releases the University from any liability for any damages or loss to property disposed of in the manner described above.

E. Destruction or Unavailability of the Premises

The University may cancel this Agreement if, due to circumstances not reasonably foreseeable at the time of its execution or beyond the control of the University at any time, the Premises or the Licensee's bed space are destroyed or become unavailable.

F. Refunds for Cancellation or Revocation

Fee refunds for the cancellation or revocation of this Agreement shall be governed by the provisions of section 42019 of Title V of the California Code of Regulations. Refunds of security deposits shall be based the provisions of section II. C. 2. of this Agreement.

G. Non-Waiver of Breach

The waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach. The University's acceptance of room payments with knowledge of the Licensee's violation of a provision or covenant of this Agreement does not waive the University's right to enforce any provision or covenant of this Agreement.

H. Vacating the Premises

The Licensee shall vacate the Premises: (1) upon the normal expiration of this Agreement or (2) upon termination or revocation of this Agreement or (3) within the three-day period set forth in the three-day removal notice, whichever comes first.

IV. Treatment of Indebtedness

Any failure by the Licensee to satisfy the financial obligations of this Agreement may result in the following:

- A. Imposition of a late fee, in accordance with the University's fee schedules;
- B. Revocation of the Agreement and removal from Premises;
- C. Withholding of University services, official transcripts, and registration privileges;
- D. Offset or garnishment of paychecks, loans, grants, scholarships, lottery winnings and income tax refunds or rebates;
- E. Referral to and legal action for collection of any balance due or past due, including for the recovery of the costs of collection;
- F. Notification to credit bureau organizations of any past-due status and/or balances.

V. Right of Entry

The University shall have the right to enter the Premises, at any time, for the purposes of emergency, health, safety, maintenance, enforcement of applicable rules and regulations, or for any other legitimate purpose to the extent permissible by law.

VI. Taxable Possessory Interest

It is the position of the University that this Agreement does not create a taxable possessory interest in real property. However, pursuant to Revenue and Taxation Code section 107.6, the Licensee is hereby notified that a taxing authority may take a contrary view and may assess the Licensee's property taxes based the Licensee's interest in this Agreement.

VII. Successors in Interest

The University retains the right to transfer its interest and obligations under this Agreement. The Licensee may not assign or transfer their rights or obligations under this Agreement without the written permission of the University. The Licensee may not sub-license or sublet the Premises to, or permit the occupancy of the Premises by, any other person without the written permission of the University.

This Agreement is subject to change without notice.
