STATEMENT OF PURPOSE FOR PARTS I AND II

CSUDH is a public institution of higher education. The University was founded in 1960 in the State of California in Los Angeles County. It is one of 23-campuses in the California State University System (CSU). CSUDH cultivates an academic community committed to justice, equity, and inclusion – one that fosters a sense of belonging and advances social mobility for our graduates.

This AAP has been designed to bring women, members of racial and ethnic minority groups, covered veterans, and persons with disabilities into all levels and segments of CSUDH’s workforce in proportion to their representation in the qualified relevant labor market.

The AAP, therefore, is a detailed, results-oriented set of procedures which, when carried out, results in full compliance with equal employment opportunity (EEO) requirements through the equal treatment of all people.

The manner in which this is to be accomplished becomes technical and somewhat complicated.

There are several reasons for this. First, CSUDH is subject to and must address a variety of State and Federal laws and guidelines dealing with EEO and AA, as well as requirements set forth as a member campus of the CSU System. These guidelines and requirements are in themselves somewhat technical and complex. In addition, relevant court decisions, which are often useful in interpreting, but sometimes conflicting with these requirements and guidelines, must be taken into account when developing and implementing the AAP. Furthermore, in determining CSUDH’s current EEO and AA position and its desired future achievements, numbers, percentages, statistics, and numerous calculations and computations must come into play.

The technical, legal, and mathematical aspects of the AAP, however, all have one common purpose—to allow CSUDH to properly identify three key concepts:

1. Where it stands now,

2. Where it must go,

3. How best to get there.

These three concepts are the Affirmative Action Plan.

CHAPTER 2: IDENTIFICATION OF PROBLEM AREAS
41 C.F.R. § 60-2.17(b)

CSU Dominguez Hills performs in-depth analyses of its total employment process to determine whether and where impediments to equal employment opportunity might exist. At a minimum, CSU Dominguez Hills evaluates:

1. The workforce by organizational unit and AAP job group to determine whether there are problems of minority or female utilization (i.e., employment in the unit or AAP group), or of minority or female distribution (i.e., placement in the different jobs within the unit or AAP job group);

2. Personnel activity (applicant flow, hires, terminations, promotions, and other personnel actions) to determine whether there are selection disparities;

3. Compensation systems to determine whether there is gender-, race-, or ethnicity-based disparities;

4. Selection, recruitment, referral, and other personnel procedures to determine whether they result in disparities in the employment or advancement of minorities or women; and

5. Any other areas that might impact the success of the affirmative action program.

In each case where potential problem areas have been identified, affirmative actions, as appropriate, will be taken consistent with any of the action-oriented programs described in Chapter 3 of this AAP.
CSU Dominguez Hills tailors our action-oriented programs each year to ensure they are specific to the problem identified.

Action-Oriented Program (AOPs):

The action-oriented programs designed to address the underutilization of women and minorities, the utilization goal set for individuals with disabilities, and the hiring benchmark for the protected veterans are listed below. These action-oriented programs will be carried-out throughout the AAP year. Evaluation of these AOPS will be conducted at least annually. The Associate Vice President, Human Resources, with the help of the managers, will be responsible in ensuring that the following are implemented.

Recruitment:

1. CSU Dominguez Hills will continue to place job advertisements through a broadly inclusive range of publications, including websites, listservs, newspapers, and professional organizations.

2. Due to the extensive technical education and experience required for some positions, CSU Dominguez Hills will also continue to place job opportunity announcements on the campus website, and in national newspapers when appropriate.

3. Job advertisements will always carry an appropriate EEO tagline such as “CSUDH is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, disability, marital status, or protected veteran status.”

4. Minority and female applicants will be considered for all positions for which they are qualified.

5. CSU Dominguez Hills will participate in job fairs if there are enough openings to warrant participation.

6. CSU Dominguez Hills will consider targeting universities based in part on the high-level of diversity of its student body.

7. The Vice President and Chief Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Officer will provide consultation to the Office of Faculty Affairs and Development, deans, and academic search committees for this cycle’s tenure-track faculty positions through resources to create active recruitment plans.
Job Specifications/Selection Process:

All selection decisions are based on the announced qualification and duties of the position vacancy. The announced qualifications reflect the skills, knowledge, abilities, experience and educational preparation that are necessary to ensure a minimal level of successful performance in the positions.

1. Develop position descriptions that accurately reflect position functions and are consistent for the same position from one location to another.

2. Develop job qualifications that contain academic, experience, and skill requirements that do not constitute inadvertent discrimination. Develop qualifications that are free from bias with regard to age, race, color, gender, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, or veteran status, and are consistent with the applicable CSU Classification Standard.

3. Make available approved position qualifications to all members of management involved in the recruiting, screening, selection, and promotion process. Copies may also be made available to recruiting sources.

4. CSU Dominguez Hills will continue to carefully select and counsel all personnel involved in the recruiting, screening, selection, promotion, disciplinary, and related processes to eliminate bias in all personnel actions.

Job Advancement:

1. In the plan year, CSU Dominguez Hills purchased an institutional license for Academic Impressions, an online professional development system focused on providing leadership, personal development, and skills-based training opportunities to faculty and staff in higher education. Through a comprehensive communications campaign, all employees will be informed about the service and encouraged to take advantage of the webinars and certificate programs.

2. CSU Dominguez Hills will continue to post or advertise job opportunities. CSU Dominguez Hills requires postings of all positions up to the Senior Management level.

3. Supervisory personnel will be required to submit justification when apparently qualified minority or female employees are passed over for upgrading.

4. All employees are actively encouraged to participate in University activities and attend sponsored social and recreational activities.

5. Consistent with CSU Policy and the respective bargaining unit requirements, CSU Dominguez Hills will continue to use our formal employee performance evaluation programs. Managers will be trained on conducting effective reviews to ensure employees receive critical feedback on their performance in the review year. Performance Evaluations are used for annual reviews for all employees.
6. Consistent with CSU Policy and the respective bargaining unit requirements, tuition reimbursement is available to CSU Dominguez Hills employees.

CSU Dominguez Hills does not and will not discriminate against any applicant or employee regardless of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation/gender identity and status as a protected veteran and/or individual with a disability to any position for which the applicant or employee is qualified. In addition, CSU Dominguez Hills is committed to a policy of taking affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified protected veteran employees and qualified employees with disabilities at all levels, including the executive level. Such affirmative action shall apply to all employment practices, including, but not limited to hiring, upgrading, demotion or transfer, recruitment, recruitment advertising, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other forms of compensation, and selection for training, including apprenticeship and on-the-job training. Decisions related to personnel policies and practices shall be made based on an individual's capacity to perform a particular job and the feasibility of any necessary job accommodation. CSU Dominguez Hills will make every effort to provide reasonable accommodations to any physical and mental limitations of individuals with disabilities and to disabled veterans.

2. Filing a complaint;

3. Assisting or participating in an investigation, compliance evaluation, hearing, or any other activity related to the administration of the affirmative action provisions of the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended (VEVRAA) or any other Federal, state or local law requiring equal opportunity for disabled veterans, recently separated veterans, active wartime or campaign badge veterans, or Armed Forces service medal veterans or Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (Section 503) or any other federal, state or local law requiring equal opportunity for disabled persons;

5. Exercising any other right protected by VEVRAA or Section 503 or their implementing regulations.
Our obligations in this area stem from not only adherence to various state and federal regulations, but also from our commitment as an employer in this community to provide job opportunities to all persons regardless of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age, sexual orientation, gender identity and status as a protected veteran or an individual with disability. CSU Dominguez Hills’s EEO policy and affirmative action obligations include the full support from the President, Thomas A. Parham, Ph.D.

The Associate Vice President, Human Resources has been delegated as the person in charge of overseeing the annual preparation and implementation of the Affirmative Action Program. CSU Dominguez Hills will also continually design and implement audit and reporting systems that will measure the effectiveness and the compliance of the AAP, identify the need for remedial actions, determine if objectives were attained, and determine if opportunities to participate in company-sponsored activities were extended to all employees and applicants.

CSU Dominguez Hills is also committed to abiding with the Pay Transparency Nondiscrimination Provisions and therefore, will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed, or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. CSU Dominguez Hills’ employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as part of their essential job functions are informed and trained to not disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) a response to a formal complaint or charge; (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with CSU Dominguez Hills’ legal duty to furnish the information.

It is also CSU Dominguez Hills’ policy not to discriminate because of a person’s relationship or association with a protected veteran. This includes spouses and other family members. CHAPTER B: REVIEW OF PERSONNEL PROCESSES
41 C.F.R. §§ 60-300.44(b); 60-741.44(b)

To ensure that all personnel activities are conducted in a job-related manner which provides and promotes equal employment opportunity for all known protected veterans and employees and applicants with disabilities, reviews are periodically made of the campus' examination and selection methods to identify barriers to employment, training, and promotion.

1. CSU Dominguez Hills periodically conducts a review of its employment processes to ensure thorough and systematic consideration of the job qualifications of 1) known protected veteran applicants and employees; and 2) applicants and employees with disabilities for job vacancies filled either by external hiring or internal promotions/transfers, as well as for all training opportunities available. To determine whether an individual is qualified for a particular job, a close examination of the content of the job is made, as well as a review of the job qualifications of known protected veterans and individuals with disabilities, both applicants and employees. In determining the qualifications of a protected veteran, consideration is given only to that portion of the military record, including discharge papers relevant to the job qualifications for which the veteran is being considered.

2. The campus ensures that its personnel processes do not stereotype individuals with disabilities or protected veterans in a manner which limits their access to jobs for which they are qualified.

3. The campus ensures that applicants and employees with disabilities have equal access to its personnel processes, including those implemented through information and communication technologies.

4. The campus provides reasonable accommodations, unless such accommodations will cause undue hardship to the campus, to applicants and employees with disabilities to ensure that equal employment opportunity are extended in the operation of its personnel processes. “Individuals with disabilities requesting accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) may call the Human Resources Management Office at (310) 243-3771.”

5. The campus ensures that information and communications systems are accessible to all employees and applicants with disabilities even in the absence of a specific request for accommodation.
CHAPTER C: PHYSICAL AND MENTAL QUALIFICATIONS
41 C.F.R. §§ 60-300.44(c); 60-741.44(c)

To ensure that all physical and mental qualifications and requirements are job-related and promote equal employment opportunity for all known protected veterans and employees and applicants with qualified disabilities, reviews are periodically made of the campus' physical and mental qualifications and requirements as they relate to employment, training, and promotion.

The University's physical and mental job requirements are reviewed to determine whether they are job-related and consistent with business necessities and safe performance on the job.

Schedule for Review: Any previously reviewed job description will be reviewed again if there is a change in working conditions which affects the job's physical or mental requirements (e.g., new requirements, new equipment, etc.)
CHAPTER D: REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION TO PHYSICAL AND MENTAL LIMITATIONS
41 C.F.R §§ 60-300.44(d); 60-741.44(d)

CSU Dominguez Hills will make every effort to provide reasonable accommodations to physical and mental limitations of applicants and employees with disabilities or who are disabled veterans unless it can demonstrate that the accommodations would impose an undue hardship on the operation of business. Such reasonable accommodations are implemented in the campus’ electronic and/or online application systems. The campus ensures that qualified applicants and employees with disabilities, who are unable to fully utilize the system, are provided equal opportunities to apply and be considered for all jobs. CSU Dominguez Hills will confidentially review performance issues of employees with known disabilities to determine whether a reasonable accommodation is needed when: (a) the employee is having significant difficulty with job performance, and (b) it is reasonable to conclude that the problem is related to the known disability.

Employees may notify their direct supervisor or contact the HR department at any time to formally request accommodation.

A copy of the sexual harassment policy, which includes a section prohibiting harassment of individuals with disabilities and/or protected veterans are available for distribution to new as well as to existing employees.
Based upon the University's review of its personnel policies as described in Chapter B, the following activities will be implemented or continued to further enhance our affirmative action efforts. Activities are the responsibility of the Associate Vice President, Human Resources for staff and management recruitments and the Associate Vice President, Faculty Affairs and Development for faculty recruitments.

   This is an on-going activity. A listing of job opportunities reported to the local State Employment Service Delivery System is always kept current.

7. Participate in veterans "job fairs" and work study programs with Veterans' Administration rehabilitation facilities and schools which specialize in training or educating protected veterans.

8. CSU Dominguez Hills will also grant leaves of absence to employees who participate in honor guards for the funeral of veterans.
CHAPTER G: INTERNAL DISSEMINATION OF POLICY

41 C.F.R. §§ 60-300.44(g); 60-741.44(g)

The following policies and procedures are designed to foster support and understanding from CSU Dominguez Hills’s executive staff, management, supervisors, and other employees to encourage all employees to take the necessary actions to aid CSU Dominguez Hills in meeting its obligations.

1. Conduct special meetings with executive, management, and supervisory personnel to explain the intent of the policy and individual responsibility for effective implementation, making clear the President's attitude.

2. Schedule training sessions for all employees involved in recruiting, selection, promotion, and other related employment issues for protected veterans and individuals with disabilities.

3. Discuss the policy thoroughly in both employee orientation and management training programs.

4. Include articles on accomplishments of protected veterans and workers with disabilities in University publications.

5. Post the policy on University bulletin boards, along with the University's harassment policy which includes protection from harassment on the basis of disability.
