Step 1: Locate and upload your file.

A screenshot of a Blackboard Turnitin submission page. The page title is "submit paper: by file upload (step 1 of 2)". The user is identified as "Reza Boroon" with a "My Places" and "Logout" link. The navigation menu includes "System Admin", "Courses", "Courses", "Organizations", "Library", "Library", "Email", "toroMail", "System Check", "Help", and "Help". The breadcrumb trail is "AT100 AT Training > Assignments > paper 2 > SUBMIT TURNITIN ASSIGNMENT". The form contains the following elements:

- A message: "Student with username rboroon has more than one Blackboard ID"
- A dropdown menu for "choose a paper item submission method:" with "single file upload" selected.
- A dropdown menu for "author" with "non-enrolled student" selected.
- Text input fields for "first name", "last name", and "submission title".
- A yellow highlighted box with the text: "Requirements for single file upload: File must be less than 20 MB".
- A "browse for the file to upload" section with a "Choose File" button and the text "No file chosen".
- At the bottom, there are "upload" and "cancel_go back" buttons.

Step 2: Verify everything and submit
