* At least two members, including the Chair, must be CSUDH faculty, and the Chair must be a faculty member from the Environmental Science Program. An external member may be added to the committee if the student and advisor agree that additional expertise is needed. This outside member does not need to be CSUDH faculty, and may be selected from another institution or professional agency. The majority of the committee members must be CSUDH faculty (two out of three, or three out of four). This process must be completed, with forms signed and submitted, before enrollment in ENV 598.
