SPECIAL SAFEGUARDS FOR FACILITIES OR ACTIVITIES

Security of and Access to Campus Facilities

The University Police Department is responsible for security of controlling all University facilities and may revoke access. All CSUDH buildings and facilities are key-accessed, and most are open to the public during the day and evening hours when classes are in session. During the times that the University is officially closed, buildings are locked and only faculty, staff, and students with proper authorization are permitted access. The Housing and Residential Life Complex is gated with key access only. Student Housing facilities requires key card access. Student Housing issues, controls, and collects key cards for student housing facilities. In conjunction with Facility Services' Lock Shop, which maintains, issues, and manages the campus keys and key access systems, UPD is responsible for authorizing the use of campus keys. To provide for the security of campus facilities, the University Police enforces Educational Code 89031:

The trustees may establish rules and regulations for the government and maintenance of the buildings and grounds of the California State University. Every person who violates or attempts to violate the rules and regulations is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Campus facility access may be revoked per Penal Code 626 (Trespass).

CSUDH uses video cameras as one method of deterring, detecting, and investigating crime on campus. The primary intent of video camera use is to discourage theft and criminal activity and to enhance the likelihood of apprehending and successfully prosecuting the offender(s). The University participates in crime prevention through environmental design concepts for planning and improvements on campus.

Security Considerations Used in Maintenance of Campus Facilities

The University Police are responsible for security of all campus facilities. Personnel perform building lockup as needed and monitor maintenance issues including campus lighting, door locks and general environmental safety in conjunction with Facilities Services. Regular inspections and surveys of campus indoor/outdoor lighting, shrubbery and walkways are conducted. The University participates in crime prevention through environmental design concepts for planning and improvements on campus.

Special Event Safety Planning

Preparation for large events on campus involve the creation of Incident Action Plans according to the Standardized Emergency Management System and in collaboration with mutual aid agencies and contracted safety personnel.

New Student Orientation

University Police personnel provide personal safety tips and emergency contact information to new students on a regular basis. Students are informed of policies, crime reporting procedures, and safety programs.

New Employee Orientation

Throughout the year University Police personnel present safety policies and procedures to new employees, in cooperation with the Human Resources department. Employees are informed of injury and illness prevention, emergency preparedness, safety programs, and crime reporting procedures.
