

- 1

This cutting-edge commercial kitchen features all-electric appliances as part of a grant through Southern California Edison.
- 2

CSUDH buildings are equipped with innovative energy-efficient lighting, HVAC, and occupancy sensors that have earned multiple recognitions and awards from the State of California.
- 3

The weekly Farmers Market brings fresh farm produce to the South Walkway every Tuesday 9am-3pm during the semester as well as EBT/Market Match services.
- 4

This nationally recognized Tesla battery storage array allows the university to store 1MW/4 hrs of energy to reduce impact on the electrical grid.
- 5

This 100% renewable energy picnic shelter features net zero technologies and also meeting space for the Sustainability Club.
- 6

The Science building is LEED Platinum certified, the highest green building LEED rating possible.
- 7

Follow the signs for the campus walking trail to go on a flat ~2 mile walking loop of CSUDH and Dignity Sports Health Park.
- 8

This is one of multiple ecological areas and gardens on campus featuring California native species. Check the "Landscape" section of the Sustainability website for more info.
- 9

The Campus Urban Farm grows fresh produce for students in-need. Visit the "Farm" section of the Sustainability website for more info.
- 10

There are hydration stations to refill your reusable water bottle on every water fountain in stateside buildings.
- 11

Recycle used batteries at the public campus drop-off locations at the Visitor Information Center (WH), COE lobby, Library Front Desk, Physical Plant front desk, and/or IT Help Desk (NSM 151)
- 12

There is almost 1MW of rooftop solar on five campus buildings: Gym, SCI, Library, SBS, and WH