

TORO GREEN INITIATIVE FUND

What's your green idea?

The Toro Green Initiative Fund (TGIF) is a grant fund provided and administered by the Office of Sustainability to support student leadership in sustainability on campus and encourage initiatives that reduce CSUDH's environmental impact on the planet, improve the efficiency of campus operations, and/or benefit the well-being of the campus community.

Interested? Just fill out the online application asking:

What is your idea?

Why will it be beneficial?

How much will it cost?

Do you want to be involved?

Top student ideas submitted by Tuesday, February 1st, 2022 will earn up to $5,000 in start-up funding for implementation.

Share your idea for how you think we can help the campus go green at:

<https://bit.ly/ToroGreenInitiative>

Questions? Email us at sustainability@csudh.edu

For more information on existing sustainability initiatives on campus, visit www.csudh.edu/sustainability.