The Mosaic Dance Company is a semi-professional touring dance company comprised of students at CSUDH. For Fall 2020, the company will take its work online, learning how to create a dance film and working on professional portfolio materials. The company will present its work in a screendance event on December 11 at 7pm. Through a variety of dance styles, the Mosaic Dance Company provides a professional training experience for the students involved and provides dance education and performances to underserved populations in the community.
