

Women's Studies

Minor

1. Demonstrate comparative knowledge of the experiences and challenges faced by women from different racial, ethnic and class groups
2. Critically analyze and explain how difference [sic] social, political, economic forces have historically impacted the experiences of women in the U.S.
3. Evaluate the unity and divisions within the women's movement with the goal of learning how to overcome these divisions and moving towards unity
4. Apply these new concepts to any career endeavor
5. Evaluate and integrate material covered in the readings and discussions
6. Demonstrate their writing, critical thinking, research, and oral communication skills through various assignments