

UC Campus Policies and Procedures for Evaluating Freshman Applicants<sup>1</sup>

UC Campus	When and how will applicants be notified of their admission status for fall 2010?	When and how will applicants be notified of financial aid awards? <sup>2</sup>	Does the campus provide applicants with an alternate admission option, such as deferred enrollment or UC Extension?	Does applying Undeclared improve or detract from an applicant's chances of admission?	Will the campus admit students to an alternate major?	Which of the campus's majors require an audition or submission of a portfolio?	Are specific SAT Subject Tests recommended for certain majors?
Berkeley	End of March, online. Admitted students also will receive a notification letter.	Concurrent with notification of admission, online	Applicants may be offered spring admission, including optional enrollment in fall Extension program.	For applicants to majors in the colleges of Letters and Sciences, Natural Resources, Chemistry and Environmental Design, major is not considered and students are not disadvantaged by applying Undeclared. For applicants to Engineering, major choice is considered in selection; Engineering Undeclared is highly selective.	Berkeley does not consider an alternate major.	None	Chemistry and Engineering; Math Level 2 and a science test related to intended major
Davis	Beginning mid-March, online, by e-mail and letter. Denied applicants will be notified online.	Concurrent with notification of admission, online.	No	No. Applying Undeclared or Undeclared/Exploratory offers an opportunity to explore before declaring a major. Special programs and advising services are available to assist students who apply Undeclared and Undeclared/Exploratory once they are enrolled.	Most admitted students are accepted to their first-choice major, but alternate majors may be considered.	Students who wish to major in Landscape Architecture must apply to the "Landscape Architecture, Pre-" major. A separate portfolio application is required and may be submitted before admission or after enrollment. See lda.ucdavis.edu .	No
Irvine	March 1–31, online, followed by letter	Beginning April 1, online and by e-mail	No	Applying Undeclared/Undecided does not improve or detract from one's chances of admission.	Most admitted applicants are accepted to a first-choice major, but alternate majors may be considered.	Applicants to majors in Dance and Music are required to audition. Applicants to Nursing Science are required to submit UC Application, UC Irvine Supplemental Application, and may be asked to a faculty interview.	Engineering (all) and CSE: Math Level 2
UCLA	Mid to late March online. Admitted students will also receive a notification letter.	In March, provisional awards, online; in May and June, electronic financial aid notifications, online. Students will receive e-mail when information is available for review.	No	Applying Undeclared has no bearing on admission decisions in the College of Letters and Science. The schools of the Arts and Architecture; Engineering and Applied Science; Nursing; and Theater, Film, and Television admit applicants by specific major only.	No	All majors open to freshmen in the schools of the Arts and Architecture and Theater, Film, and Television require submission of supplemental materials, including but not limited to a portfolio or audition. The School of Nursing requires a supplemental application. See school websites for details and deadlines.	Engineering and Applied Science, Nursing; Math Level 2 and a science test related to intended major

<sup>1</sup>A student is considered a freshman (first-year) applicant if the student is still in high school (secondary school) or has graduated from high school but has not enrolled in a regular session at any college or university. A student who attends a college summer session immediately after graduating from high school or who has completed college work while in high school is considered a freshman.

<sup>2</sup> Notification date is contingent on a student applying on time and answering all follow-up questions in a timely fashion.
